~~(iii) If the circuit court determines that grounds for forfeiting the seized property exist and that a defense to forfeiture has not been established by the owner or interest holder, the circuit court shall enter an order under this section. However, if the circuit court determines either that the prosecuting attorney has failed to establish that grounds for forfeiting the seized property exist or that the owner or interest holder has established a defense to forfeiture, the court shall order that the seized property be immediately returned to the owner or interest holder.~~

~~(1)(1) If the circuit court having jurisdiction over the seized property finds upon a hearing by a preponderance of the evidence that grounds for a forfeiture exist under this subchapter, the circuit court shall enter an order:~~

~~(6) The account is subject to audit by Arkansas Legislative Audit.~~

~~(7) A balance over three hundred fifty thousand dollars ($350,000) shall be transferred to the State Treasury for deposit into the Special State Assets Forfeiture Fund in which it shall be maintained separately and distributed consistently with governing federal law and upon the advice of the director.~~

~~(n) In personam jurisdiction may be based on a person's presence in the state or on his or her conduct in the state, as set out in § 16-4-101(G), and is subject to the following additional provisions:~~

~~(1) A temporary restraining order under this section may be entered ex parte on application of the state upon a showing that:~~

~~(B) Notice of the action would jeopardize the availability of the property for forfeiture;~~

~~(2)(A) Notice of the entry of a temporary restraining order and an opportunity for hearing shall be afforded to a person known to have an interest in the property.~~

~~(B) The hearing shall be held at the earliest possible date consistent with Rule 65 of the Arkansas Rules of Civil Procedure and is limited to the issues of whether:~~

~~(ii) The need to preserve the availability of property through the entry of the requested temporary restraining order outweighs the hardship on an owner or interest holder against whom the temporary restraining order is to be entered;~~

~~(3) The state has the burden of proof by a preponderance of the~~

~~evidence to show that the defendant's property is subject to forfeiture;~~

~~(4)(A) On a determination of liability of a person for conduct giving rise to forfeiture under this section, the circuit court shall enter a judgment of forfeiture of the property subject to forfeiture as alleged in the complaint and may authorize the prosecuting attorney or a law enforcement officer to seize property subject to forfeiture under this section not previously seized or not then under seizure.~~

~~(B) The order of forfeiture shall be consistent with subsection (1) of this section.~~

~~(C) In connection with the judgment, on application of the state, the circuit court may enter an appropriate order to protect the interest of the state in property ordered forfeited; and~~

~~(o) The circuit court shall order the forfeiture of other property of a claimant or defendant up to the value of the claimant's or defendant's property found by the circuit court to be subject to forfeiture under this section if any of the forfeitable property had remained under the control or custody of the claimant or defendant and:~~

~~(1) Cannot be located;~~

~~(2) Was transferred or conveyed to, sold to, or deposited with a third party;~~

~~(3) Is beyond the jurisdiction of the circuit court;~~
