STATEMENT FOR CLAIMANT

The claimant on or about Friday, March 9, 2012, claimant received a major disciplinary from correctional officer, Klages N. Murphy, for allegedly having violated prison rules such was reviewed by Chief of Security, namely respondent, Dwayne Earl. Claimant appeared before the disciplinary hearing officer on March 30, 2012 — eleven (11) days total but 8 days — "work-ing days" — which were March 11-15 and March 18 - 20, 2012, being convicted/adjudicated to being "guilty." and subsequently punished by the hearing officer of four (4) of the five (5) rules.

The claimant's situation is that the respondents violated its own wording within its own policy and procedure when the respondent, disciplinary hearing officer tried, convicted and punished the petitioning claimant with 30 days' punitive isolation, having to remain Class 4 for along time, hindering him from "good time" credits, contact visitation privileges, proper medical treatment (claimant is a insulin diabetic, and being unable to go to the pill window for shots), as well as Hobbycraft (Workcraft) privileges,

But more importantly, claimant was not to have even been tried, for the disciplinary report had expired. The expiration date was March 12, 2013, and when the respondents violated its own rules, policy, practice or procedure, such being fatal for no extension was given, the respondents are personally liable.

AD 11-51. Inmate Disciplinary Manual that claimant was under then, at section E(3), provided in part:

"no disciplinary stage will be heard after seven business days of the disciplinary excluding legal holidays from the disciplinary except pursuant to an authorized extension. For example, an inmate receiving a disciplinary on Tuesday at 9:00 a.m. or 10:00 p.m. should be tried by 6:00 p.m. the following Thursday assuming there were no holidays. Disciplinaries should be tried between 6:00 a.m. and 6:00 p.m. whenever possible, Section E(3), AD 11-51. Emphasis is to p. 15 of 43.

These mandatory procedures where respondent overlooked - caused actual injury by being put under such sanctions that are named above, and AD 11-51, was what claimant was under as he was wrongfully punished without regard as to how policy and mandatory language in said policy required. Thus, the proof of actual injury has been shown.[3]

This shows by a preponderance of evidence claimant's entitlement to relief by the Claims Commission.

Footnote Two:

[3] This doesn't count as to how such injury has prevented the claimant from rehabilitating himself by taking advantage of obtaining Class I, rehabilitative programs, treaty status and alot more.

MOTION TO DISMISS

COMES NOW the Respondent, Arkansas Department of Correction, and for its Amended Motion to Dismiss, states as follows:

1. Claimant has filed an action seeking $17,000.00 for failure to follow policy arising from a disciplinary. Claimant has failed to state a cause of action under ARCP 12(b)(6) and the claim should be dismissed.

2. Claimant received disciplinaries and was found guilty of failure to keep his person/quarters within regulation, battery upon staff, possession/introduction of clothing, and failure to obey order of staff. These convictions were upheld on all levels of appeal.

2. Claimant cannot bring an action for damages for a properly assessed and upheld disciplinary. "A prisoner cannot pursue the damages claim until the conviction or sentence is reversed, expunged, or called into question by a state tribunal or federal court." Brown v. Sanders 2013 WL 5522435 (E.D. Ark.), citing Heck v. Humphrey, 512 U. S. 477, 489 (1994). In Edwards v. Baliso, 520, U. S. 641 (1997), the Supreme Court extended its holding in Heck so as to apply to disciplinary proceedings that resulted in a loss of good time credits. Claimant's disciplinary conviction for the above has not been reversed, expunged or challenged by a court; therefore, his claim should be dismissed.

3. A motion to dismiss is proper when there are no facts upon which relief can be granted. ARCP 12(B)(6). Respondent moves that the commission dismiss this claim.

WHEREFORE, for the reasons stated above and the evidence submitted, the Claim must be dismissed.

REPLY TO RESPONSE TO MOTION TO DISMISS

COMES NOW the Respondent, Arkansas Department of Correction, and for its Repy to Response to Motion to Dismiss, states as follows:

Claimant cites Skinner v. Switzer, 131 S. Ct 1289 (2011) for the proposition that it holds that 'a failure to follow a procedure is actionable under Section 1983 without awaiting reversal or removal of the case under Heck. Respondent submits that Claimant has misstated the holding of Skinner. In Skinner, the Supreme Court considered whether or not a state prison could seek DNA testing of crime scene evidence based on due process in a Section 1983 action rather than a habeas corpus proceeding due to a split in the circuits on this issue. The Court concluded Skinner had properly brought the claim for DNA testing under Section 1983 as a procedural due process violation. It is not decided as stated by Claimant.

ARKANSAS DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTION RESPONDENT

RESPONDENT'S AMENDED MOTION TO DISMISS

COMES NOW the Respondent, Arkansas Department of Correction, and for its MOTION TO DISMISS, states and responds as follows:

1. Claimant filed a claim for failure to follow policy based on an alleged expired disciplinary. He seeks damages of $17,000.00.

2. Claimant alleges due process argument stating that his due process rights were violated by the disciplinary proceeding although he calls it a failure to follow policy.

3. Claimant has filed in the wrong venue and his relief sought cannot be granted under ARCP Rule 12(b)(3).

4. Claimant has filed this matter in the wrong court. Any allegation of due process or constitutional violation cannot be filed in the claims commission according to the rules of the Arkansas State Claims Commission and the matter should be dismissed. See Exhibit "A".

5. Furthermore, Claimant has failed to state a claim under ARCP 12(b)(6) and the claim should be dismissed.

6. Claimant correctly states the facts of the disciplinary violation. He received it on March 9, 2012, a Friday. The hearing was held at 10:27 a.m. on Tuesday, March 20, 2012, which is the 7th day after he received the disciplinary.

7. Claimant provides in his complaint the wording of AD 11-51 which shows how to correctly calculate the time for hearing the disciplinary. The day the disciplinary is received does not count in the calculation of the time for hearing. Note in Ad 11-51, a disciplinary received on Tuesday, must be heard between 6:00 a.m. and 6:00 p.m. on Thursday. Not counting Tuesday that the disciplinary was received, the seven working days are: Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

8. In the case herein, Claimant received it on Friday, and it was heard on Thursday at 10:27 a.m. which was proper under AD 11-51.

9. Claimant has failed to show a violation of due process or a failure to follow policy in the conduct of his hearing and the matter should be dismissed.

WHEREFORE, for the reasons stated above and the evidence submitted, the Claim should be dismissed.

NO 14-420-CC

Arkansas Department of corrections Respondent

I claiment wishes to submit closeing Argument to This claim Commission

AD 11-51 Inmate Disciplinary MANUAL page 15 of 43 part 3 states That Disciplinary Courts Objective shall Be To Hear All Disciplinary Actions within Seven(7) Busness Days of The Disciplinary NO Disciplinary will Be heard After 7 Business Days excluding legal Holidays from The Disciplinary except pursuant To An Authorized extension

Respondent has set fouth The EXAMple AS There case An Inmate Recluing A disciplinary on TuesDAY AT 9:00 AM. OR 10:00 pm should Be Tride By 6:00 pm. The following Thurs DAY Assuming There were no HolidayS Disciplinaries should be Tried Between 6:00 A.M. And 6:00 pm whenever possible

i Agree with This First The Time 9:AM This Disciplin-Ary Should expire 9:AM The Following Thursday The 10:00 p.m The Time would Actually start at 6AM wensday AT 6:pm weisday is A Business day, So The Folling Thursday AT 6:00 pm is 7 Business Days. The Arkansas Department of Correction Argument

That Because The example which states inmate Reciving A Disciplinary on Tuesday at 9:00 AM. or 10.00 pm should Be hide By 6:00 P.M. The Arkansas Department of Correctons Belives or states That Because of This example That These time of Disciplinary Expires at 6pm it Dose not state this. The Business day is on Disciplinary 6:00 AM to 6:00 pm. 8:02 is within The Business day Thus from 8:02 AM to 8:02 AM A Business day has passed And There is no Reason To Extend Time For trial, if The Disciplinary was Recived at 10:00 pm The time would start at 6:00 AM And one Business day ends at 6:00 pm. A.D. 11.51 Effective Date 9-26-2011 Came from or was Reference: A.R. 831 Disciplinary Rules And Regulations, with in This Rule, which All inmate Handbook are Refrenced, states Unless your disciplinary is Extended under The provisions for Extension in A.R 831, it will expire Seven (7) Business Days (Excluding Legal Holidays) From both The Dates And Time of The Incident or The discovery of The incident (in cases where The incident was Concealed from staff) if your disciplinary is Extended you will be provided a copy of The Extension form (F-831-S).

in closing Conclusion

The Arkansas Department of correction knows That This Disciplinary should have Been Dismissed This case was Appealed from Warden to Administrator to Director an All Chose To Affrim Statein and I was Heard in The Alotted time All Refused To follow There own Rules An Chose To follow judge Clay And go Against The policy; Disciplinary action will be heard with in 7 working day That is The Rule or policy NO Disciplinary well

Be Heard After 7 Business days, There were no Holiday or extensions And There is no Reason why This Disciplinary was not Heeded Before Tuesday March 20th AT 8:02 AM, when it was given 8:02 A.M March 9th 8:02 AM. My (Hobby (CRAFT Property) was Taken, my Ability To Make Money was Taken from March 2082 To Now The Arkansas Department of correction Breaches policy At will A lot more Than i Have Been done Like This And This Court At This Time can change That By giveing A clear Ruling in This case giving me Back my Hobby CRAFT The money for The Art And CRAFT property, And The money for Time i would Have made Money And finally punitive DAMAGES intented To punish The ARKANSAS department of correction for not following policy. NO-14-420-CC

ARKANSAS Department of Corrections Respondant

Motion For Reconsideration of Decision

Come Now Claude WALLACE #85239 Requesting Reconsideration Of its Decision To Deny And Dismiss My Claim That The Arkansas Department of corrections Did Fail to follow procedure And personal injury

AD-11-51 STATES Disciplinary Courts objective Shall be To Hear All disciplinary ACTions within seven(7) Business Days of The Disciplinary NO disciplinary will be Heard After Seven(7) Business Days, Excluding Legal Holidays From The disciplinary Except Pursuant To An Authorized Extension.

My ARGUMENT IS. The ARKANSAS Department of corrections Did NOT HAVE My Disciplinary tried within seven(7) Business Days IN Accordance with AD 11-51 Rule(3) page 15 of 43

The ARKANSAS Department OF Corrections ARGued AD 11-51 IS of 43 Rule(3)'s EXAmple Merriam-Webster STATES EXAmple(1) Something Forming A model To be Followed or Avoided (2) A REPSENTATIVE SAMple And.

(B) A problem to be solved in order to show the application of some Rule. Basicly the example should Reflect the Rule. The Arkansas Department of Corrections has the example Reflecting what they wish the example to mean not AD 11.55 page 15 of 43 Rule 3
The example states A inmate Receiving A Disciplinary on Tuesday at 9:00 AM or 10:00 pm should be tried By 6:00 pm The following Thursday and states Disciplinary should be tried Between 6:00 AM and 6:00 PM whenever possible.
It is stated that A Disciplinary written at either the AM or PM time should be Tried By 6:00 pm
The Arkansas Department of Correction Reads it to be the AM time or the pm time will expire at 6:00 pm The AD-11-51 page 15 of 43 Rule 3 Dose not state this. The way the Arkansas Department of Corrections misReads this Rule of this policy it expires 9 Hours (After) the Seven (7) Business Day Limit which violates AD 11-51 page 15 of 43, Rule 25
The example shows the way AD-11-51 page 15 of 43 Rule 3 was to be Determind. AD 11-51 pg 15 of 43 Rule 3 states that All Disciplinary shall be Tried within (7) Seven Business Days and The example states 6:00 AM to 6:00 pm as a day in which Disciplinary are Tried Becouse one incident Happen at Tuesday at 10:00 pm That Business day would not began until Wensday at 6:00 AM And the first day would be completed the same Wensday at 6:00 pm This Disciplinary will expire at 6:00 pm on that Thursday
The Disciplinary timed at 9:00 AM Tuesday Wensday at 9:00 AM is one Business day, on Thursday at 9:00 AM This Disciplinary Expires Boath By 6:00 pm This Dose not violate AD 11-51 page 15 of 43 Rule 3 The Rule it is to support

The WAY The ARKANSAS DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS REPRESENTS This Rule of AD 11-51 IT IS VAGUE i HAVE NO DOUBT IT WAS NOT MENT TO be This WAY IT is A FUNDAMENTAL precept of ORDINARY NOTIONS of FAIR play THAT A Procedure which either forbids or Requires The doing of A ACT in TERMS so VAGUE THAT MEN of COMMON INTELLIGENCE MUST NECESSARILY GUESS AT IT MEANING And differ AS TO ITS APPLICATION, MORE over where prohibited CONDUCT close NOT CARRY IN WITH IT; ITS OWN INDICA OF WRONG DOING The need for CLEARLY DRAWN prison REGULATIONS is PARTICULARLY ACUTE, i ASK This HONORABLE COURT TO RECONSIDER ITS DECISION TO denie And dismiss my CLAIM i The CLAIMANT BELEVED THAT SHOWING THAT The ARKANSAS DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS VIOLATED IT POLICY WAS ENOUGH TO SHOW BY A PREPONDERANCE OF The EVIDENCE THAT The ARKANSAS DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS WAS liABil because The ARKANSAS DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTION RELIED only on A EXAMPLE which WAS To support AD 11-51 page 15 of 43 Rule(3), BUT By The WAS They presented it, it VIOLATED The Rule IT WAS TO SUPPORT Because The ARKANSAS DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTION SUBVERTED The EXAMPLE INSTEAD OF following The Rule, And By doing SO Did NOT follow PROCEDURES i ASKED This COURT for PERSONAL DAMAGES or INJURYS FIRST The loss of HOBBY CRAFT PRIVILEDGE - And HOBBY CRAFT PROPERTY AMOUNTING TO APPROXIMATELY # 2:50 DOLLORS AND LOST WAGES FOR AT LEAST #20:00 A MONTH FOR 32 MONTHS #640.00 DOLLORS And Because The EXAMPLE WAS SUBVERTED By The ARKANSAS DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS KNOWINGLY SO THAT AD 11-51 Could Be USED TO denie INMATE OF The ARKANSAS DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTION There RIGHT, TO FUNDAMENTAL FAIRNESS FAIRNESS WAS denied By Judge CRAY DISCIPLINARY HEARING ADMINISTRATOR RAYMOND NAYLOR And DIRECTOR RAY

By using This Subverted Application of This Example purposly By The Arkansas Department of correction That I Ask For punitive DAMAges And The Fact That This Court MUST set The Arkansas Department STATE on what should be followed.

I Thank This Honorable Court for his Time And Consideration

2. A charged inmate must be given at least twenty-four (24) hours prior notice of a disciplinary proceeding. The inmate may call witnesses by giving the serving officer the names of the individuals he/she wishes to call. The manner in which the witnesses' statements are presented to the court shall be within the discretion of the Disciplinary Hearing Officer.

JUR 2d STATUTES § 14 ARKANSAS CASES AGREE THAT IN DETERMINING WHETHER A STATUTE'S PROVISIONS ARE MANDATORY OR DIRECTORY, "WE ADHERE TO THE PRINCIPLE THAT THOSE THINGS WHICH ARE OF THE ESSENCE OF THE THING TO BE DONE ARE MANDATORY SEE, E.G., CRAWFORD & LEWIS V. BOATMEN'S TRUST CO., 338 ARK 679, 690, 1 S.W. 3d 417, 424 (1999)

According To The Administrated Rusulation of The Arkansas Department of Correction section number 831 which goverans Disciplinary Rule And Regulations IT is clearly stated on page 1 Catesory (II) (A) page 1 category (II) (B) That There is no BIAS Favor of charging officer And no presumption of Guilt

(B) The Administrative Regulation of The A-D.C. Section number 831 was Approved By The Board of corrections on may 17 1990 And Reviewed by The ATT general on MAY 17 1990 And was filed With The secretary of state on MAY 18 1990

C The Admenistrative Regulation of The Arkansas Department of Correction Section No. 831 page 1 (I) State policy: To ensure That institutional Rules And Regulations are enforced Through An UnBiased And Prudent FACT finding And To protect The Due process Rights of inmates Throughout The Disciplinary process

My Argument is The Arkansas Depart ment of correction DID NOT HAVE my Disciplinary Tried within The seven (7) Business Days in Accordance with Administrative Directive 11-51 Reference:, A.R. 831 Disciplinary Rules And Regulations This is proved By All The evidence i place before judge Essy-clay The Disciplinary judge, of This case. unit Wardon Danny Burl Disciplinary Hearing Administrator Raymond Naylor The Director Of The Arkansas Department of Corrections Ray Hobbs And Then To The Arkansas State Claims Commission, Some of These people Are Board certifide Arkansas Lawyers But None made A UnBIASed And prudent FACT finding To protect The Arkansas case And Ark. Dept. of corr. policy which created An Obligation To inmates impervious to judicial Descretion when The Amount of Time (7) Business Day And The specified consequence

The disciplinary will not be heard ~~after~~ seven 7 Business Days is the consequence for failure to comply with the TIME LIMIT

The Arkansas Department of Correction Defended it self By Arguing A.D. 11-51 page 15 of 43 Rule (3c) example They fail to note that an example ox Ford American Dictionary (2.) Something that shows or supports a general Rule). The example should Reflect the Rule or policy

The Arkansas Department of Correction has there example violating Arkansas Department of Correction Administrative Directive 11-51 And the example itself / example / states a inmate Receiving a Disciplinary on Tuesday at 9:00 AM or 10:00 pm should be tried by 6:00 pm the following Thurs Day. And states Disciplinary Should be tried between 6:00 AM and 6:00 pm when ever possible, Some where in this example, The Arkansas Department of correction has come to the conclusion that they have to 6:00 pm on the Day the Disciplinary expires no matter the time of the incident or time of the disciplinary The way the Arkansas Department of Correction (MisRead) this Rule of this policy The 9:00 A.M. Disciplinary time Line will expires 9 Hours After the Seven 7 Business Days Limit which violates A.D. 11-51 page 15 of 43 Rule (3)

The Way this Rule should have been Read = AD 11-51 page 15 of 43 Rule (3) states that All Disciplinary shall be tried within seven (7) Business Days And the example states that 6:00 Am to 6:00 pm as a Day in which Disciplinary Are Tried 1 Because one incident Happen at Tuesday at 10:00 pm that Business Day would not start until

WEDNESDAY AT 6:00 AM And the First DAY would Be completed THAT SAME WEDNESDAY AT 6:00 PM, And The (7TH) BUSINESS DAYS Will End The Following Thursday AT 6:00 PM. AS IN AD 11-51 The Disciplinary Timed AT 9:00 AM TUESDAY. EACH BUSINESS DAY AT 9:00 AM IS ANOTHER DAY And THIS Disciplinary will Expire AT 9:00 AM The Following Thursday And NOT GO over The (7) DAY LIMIT SET By A.D. 11-51 PG, 15. of 43. (3) BOATH TIMES MENTIONED in A.D. 11.51 PG 15 OF 43 (3) Fall within The LIMIT SET BY ITS Policy. The WAY The ARKANSAS DEPARTMENT of Correction STATE This EXAMPLE iT VIOLATES A.D. 11-51 PG, 15. of 43. (3) By NOT Following MANDATORY LANGUAGE And By NOT Following This MANDATORY LANGUAGE THAY VIOLATE The obligations Created By The LANGUAGE And INTITLEMENTS THAT Arise EITher From The ARKANSAS CONSTITUTION ITSelf, STATE STATUTES, Rules, or understanding

Because The Time limit WAS Violated, By The ARKANSAS DEPARTMENT of Corrections By (25) MINUTES i WAS CONVICTED of A Disciplinary THAT HAD EXPired i Loss My CLASS AN given 30 DAY punitive iSOLATION And A MANDATORY 365 DAY Administrative Segregation Release AFTER 7-15-13 15 MOUNTH 26 DAY, I HAD Hobby CRAFT And Hobby CRAFT property, THAT AMOUNTED To over $ 250.00 AN LOST WAGES of AT LEAST $20.00 A MOUNTH For The LAST 32 MOUNTH 640.00 And Because The ARKANSAS DEPARTMENT of Correction VIOLATED ME By NOT Following MANDATORY LANGUAGE And subverting The EXAMPLE knowingly so THAT AD 11-51 Could Be used To denie INMATES of The ARKANSAS DEPARTMENT OF Correction There RIGHT, TO FUNDAMENTAL FAIRNESS All THAT HAS LOOKED AT THIS CASE, FAIRNESS HAS Been Denied All Are more educated THAN I, AN I ASK This General ASSEMBLY I ASK For PUNITIVE DAMAGES

I ASK This General Assembly for my Hobby CRAFT, Hobby CRAFT Property Amounting #250 00 Lost Wages of #2000 A week For The LAST 32 Weeks #640.00 And PUNITIVE DAMAGES #16.110.00 IN All i ASK This General Assembly For 17.000.00

I THANK This Honorable General Assembly For ITS TIME And CONSIDERATION
