6 issued is entitled to a hearing on the motion for revocation.

7           (4) The person to whom the certificate of employability was 8 issued and the prosecuting attorney shall be given notice of the motion for 9 revocation at least three (3) weeks before a hearing on the matter.

10           (e) The revocation of a certificate of employability does not affect 11 the right of an employer to rely on the validity of the certificate of 12 employability unless the employer knew before the individual was employed 13 that the certificate of employability had been revoked.

14           (f) The prosecuting attorney shall have the right to appear and be 32           16-90-1603. Effect on certain proceedings.

33           (a) In a judicial or administrative proceeding alleging negligence or 35 a person's due care in hiring, retaining, licensing, leasing to, admitting to 36 a school or program, or otherwise transacting business or engaging in

1 activity with the person to whom the certificate of employability was issued 2 if the person knew of the certificate of employability at the time of the 3 alleged negligence or other fault.

4 (b) In a claim of negligent hiring against an employer, a certificate 5 of employability may constitute evidence of lack of negligence unless the 6 employer knew or should have known that the employee should not have been 7 hired for the position due to the nature of the employee's criminal history 8 at the time of the employer's decision to hire the employee.

9 (c) A certificate of employability does not provide relief from:
