RE: Administrative Office of the Courts request for Various Temporary Appropriation

In Fiscal Year 2022, the Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC) applied for and received $1.54 million in Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act awards. The funds have been transferred by the Department of Finance and Administration (DFA).

The AOC is required to distribute these monies as quickly as possible out of Fund Center U65 (Juvenile Probation and Intake Officers), Cost Center 114701. In combination with the remainder of our appropriation in that fund center, we have a balance of $1,699,446 that needs to be distributed. Our current remaining appropriation stands at $52,347. Therefore, we need an appropriation increase of $1,647,099, bringing the total appropriation to $1,699,446.

If this appropriation increase is not granted immediately, it is unlikely counties/juvenile drug courts will have time to receive, allocate, and fully utilize these funds.

This should be a one-time appropriation increase to spend CARES Act awards.

Accordingly, the AOC is requesting the necessary appropriation of $1,647,099, bringing the total appropriation to $1,699,446.

Fund	Appropriation	Commitment Item	Budget Act	Request
HSC2300	U65	5110014	23 of 21 (5)	$1,647,099.00

Sincerely,

Samuel Kauffman
