Upon motion of Representative Teague, SENATE BILL NO. 808 was placed back on second reading for the purpose of amendment.

AMENDMENT NO. 1 TO SENATE BILL NO. 808

Amend SENATE BILL NO. 808 as engrossed, 3/19/01:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and substitute the following:

"SECTION 1. Title.

This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Venture Capital Investment Act of 2001".

SECTION 2. Purpose.

The State of Arkansas desires to increase the availability of equity and near-equity capital for emerging, expanding, relocating, and restructuring enterprises in the state. Such investments will help strengthen the state's economic base and create jobs.

SECTION 3. Definitions.

For purposes of this act:

(1) "Authority" means the Arkansas Development Finance Authority;

(2) "Bond guaranty" means a special obligation of the Bond Guaranty Reserve Account as defined in §15-5-403(8);

(3) "Capital guaranty" means the guaranty provided by the Arkansas Development Finance Authority under section five of this act;

(4) "Certificate" means a document executed by the Authority extending a capital guaranty to the designated investor group;

(5) "Designated investor group" means the investor group selected by the authority under this act;

(6) "Equity capital" means capital invested in common or preferred stock, royalty rights, limited partnership interests, limited liability company interests, and any other securities or rights that evidence ownership in private businesses;

(7) "Investor group" means any individual, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, or other lawfully organized entity;

(8) "Near-equity capital" means capital invested in unsecured, undersecured, subordinated or convertible loans or debt securities;

(9) "Person" means any individual, corporation, partnership or other lawfully organized entity;

(10) "Revolving fund" means a bank account:

(A) Created by the designated investor group in a financial institution located in this state; and

(B) Used solely as provided in this act; and

(11) "Tax credit" means an income tax credit granted to the authority under this act.

SECTION 4. Designated investor group.

(a)(1) The authority shall solicit from investor groups investment plans for the raising and investing of capital in accordance with the requirements of this act.

(2) Investment plans submitted shall address the investor group's level of experience, quality of management, investment philosophy and process, probability of success in fund raising, and plan for achieving the purposes of the act.

(b)(1) The authority shall consider and select the investment plans and shall select and certify as the designated investor group the one (1) investor group deemed best qualified to:

(A) Capitalize the private revolving fund with the most effective and efficient utilization of the capital guaranty;

(B) Invest the capital in private seed and venture capital entities in a manner mobilizing a wide variety of equity and near-equity capital investments in ventures promoting the economic development of Arkansas; and

(C) Help build a significant, fiscally strong, and permanent resource to serve the objectives expressed in subdivision (B) of this section.

(2) The designated investor group must have a manager who is a person with demonstrated substantial successful experience in design, implementation, and management of seed and venture capital investment programs and in capital formation.

(c) The Arkansas Development Finance Authority shall have the right to, in its discretion, remove and replace the chosen designated investor group and to affect the assignment of all assets, liabilities, guaranties, and other contracts of this program to a new designated investor group.

SECTION 5. Guaranty.

(a) The Arkansas Development Finance Authority shall have the power to extend a capital guaranty of obligations issued by the designated investor group.

(b) The capital guaranty shall be secured by:

(1) The Arkansas Development Finance Authority guaranty, subject to the limits establish by the authority; and

(2) Tax credits.

(c) The authority may charge a reasonable fee for costs and the fair compensation of risk associated with its guaranty.

SECTION 6. Tax Credits.

(a) The State of Arkansas shall issue income tax credits that may be used to reduce the tax liability of a person, firm, or corporation.

(b)(1) Income tax credits transferred by the authority shall only be used to offset payment of reported state income tax liability and are not refundable.

(2) Unused credit may be carried forward for five (5) additional taxable years after the taxable year in which the credit was first used.

(b) Tax credits against liabilities shall be limited to the amount that would otherwise be collected and allocated to the Treasurer of State.

(c) The total amount of credits issued and transferable to the authority is sixty million dollars ($60,000,000).

(d) The credits issued under this act shall be transferred only after:

(1) The Arkansas Development Finance Authority guaranty funds, subject to limits established by the authority, are exhausted;

(2)(A) The Arkansas Development Finance Authority presents its recommendations concerning the issuance of tax credits to the State Board of Finance;

(B) These recommendations shall include:

(i) The amount of tax credits to be transferred to the parties with whom the authority has contracted;

(ii) The parties to whom the credits will be transferred;
and

(iii) Other information requested by the State Board of finance; and

(3) The State Board of Finance reviews and approves the issuance of such tax credits.

(e)(1) The authority shall immediately notify the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and the Governor in writing if any tax credit is transferred in conjunction with a legitimate call on an authority guarantee.

(2) The authority shall not be required to make such notification for transfers to subsequent transferees.

(f) The Arkansas Development Finance Authority shall determine the amount of income tax credits to be transferred by the authority under this act, up to a total amount of ten million dollars ($10,000,000) in any one (1) fiscal year, and may negotiate for sale of the credits subject only to the limits imposed under this act.

(g) The authority shall clearly indicate upon the face of the document transferring the tax credit the principal amount of the tax credit.

(h) The authority may pay a fee in connection with the purchase by the authority of an option or other agreement under which the transfer of the tax credits authorized under this act may be made.

(i) The authority shall have the power to make any contract, execute any document, charge reasonable fees for any services rendered, perform any act or enter into any financial or other transaction necessary in order to carry out its mission.

(j)(1) The authority may employ any person as required for proper implementation of this act, the management of its assets, or the performance of any function authorized or required by this act or necessary for the accomplishment of any function.

(2) The person employed shall be selected by the authority based upon outstanding knowledge and leadership in the field for which the person performs services for the authority.

SECTION 7. Registration of Tax Credits.

(a) The authority shall, in conjunction with the Revenue Division of the Department of Finance and Administration, develop a system for registration of all tax credits claimed under this act.

(b) The system shall verify that any:

(1) Tax credit claimed upon a tax return is valid and properly taken in the year of claim; and

(2) Transfer of the tax credit is made in accordance with the requirements of this act.

SECTION 8. Annual report.

The designated investor group shall publish an annual report within six (6) months after the close of its fiscal year, which shall:

(1) Include its annual audit of the activities conducted by the designated investor group;

(2) Be presented in writing, and by testimony if requested, to the Governor, the House and Senate Interim Committees on Agriculture and Economic Development of the Arkansas General Assembly, and the authority;

(3) Document and review the progress of the designated investor group in implementing its investment plan; and

(4) List any use, redemption or transfer of tax credits allowed under this act.

SECTION 9. Powers of the authority.

The authority shall have the power to promulgate regulations and make any contract, execute any document, perform any act, or enter into any financial or other transaction necessary to implement this act.
