"SECTION 1. Arkansas Code Title 6, Chapter 13, Subchapter 1 is amended to add an additional section to read as follows:

6-13-111. Consolidated school districts.

A school district in the State of Arkansas that is consolidated with one (1) or more school districts may:

(1) Sell buildings or lands owned by the school district that are no longer used by the school district; or

(2) Preserve buildings or lands owned by the school district that are no longer used by the school district.

SECTION 2. Arkansas Code § 6-21-108 is amended to read as follows:

6-21-108. School districts authorized to own and convey real property —
Donation of property for educational purposes only.

(a) In addition to the authority of school districts under § 6-13-620 to have the care and custody of the schoolhouse, grounds, and other property belonging to the district, the board of directors for any Arkansas school district shall be authorized and empowered to acquire and hold real estate, tenements, hereditaments, and other real property as is necessary and proper for the purposes of the education of pupils of the district and the administration of the schools of the district.

(b)(1) If the board of directors for a school district determines that any real estate owned or controlled by the district is not required for the present or anticipated future needs of the school district and that the donation thereof would serve a beneficial educational service for the pupils of the district, then the school district is also empowered and authorized to donate property or any part thereof to a publicly supported institution of higher education, or a vocational-technical or a technical institute, a community college, a not-for-profit organization, or any entity thereof, for any of the following limited purposes:

(A) Having the real property improved, upgraded, rehabilitated, or enlarged by the donee; ~~or~~

(B) Providing a publicly supported institution of higher education ~~or a vocational-technical~~ technical institute or community college with the donated property in which to hold classes for students who are from the district or to educate pupils from within the donating school district even if students from outside the district might also benefit; ~~or~~

(C) Providing community programs, social enrichment programs, or after-school programs for students who are from the district or to educate pupils from within the donating school district even if other persons in the community or students from outside the district might also benefit.

~~(2) All donation instruments shall contain provisions by which the title to the property donated shall revert to the donating school district when the donated property is no longer used by the donee for the purposes for which it was donated.~~

~~(3)~~(2) Furthermore, school districts may donate the fee simple title and absolute interest, without any reservations or restrictions, in and to all real property or any part of the property to the publicly supported institution or college if this property was previously conveyed or otherwise transferred by the institution or college to the school district without cost.

(c) The execution of all contracts and conveyances and lease contracts shall be performed by the president and confirmed by the secretary of the school board when authorized by a resolution in writing and approved by a majority vote of the school board.”

SECTION 27. Arkansas Code § 14-42-304(b), concerning amendments to charters submitted to qualified electors, is amended to read as follows:

(b)(1) The amendment shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the municipality at a regular or special election.

(2)(A) The special election shall occur on the second Tuesday of any month, except as provided in subdivision (b)(2)(B) of this section.

(B)(i)(a) Special elections held in months in which a presidential preferential primary election, preferential primary election, general primary election, or general election is scheduled to occur shall be held on the date of the presidential preferential primary election, preferential primary election, general primary election, or general election.

(b)(1)(A) If a special election is held on the date of the presidential preferential primary election, preferential primary election, or general primary election, the issue or issues to be voted upon at the special election shall be included on the ballot of each political party.

(B) However, separate ballots containing only the issue or issues to be voted upon at the special election shall be prepared and made available to voters requesting a separate ballot.

(2) No voter shall be required to vote in a political party's presidential preferential primary, preferential primary, or general primary in order to be able to vote in the special election.

(ii) Special elections scheduled to occur in a month in which the second Tuesday is a legal holiday shall be held on the third Tuesday of the month."

SECTION 32. Arkansas Code § 14-47-107(a), concerning elections on the aldermanic form of government, is amended to read as follows:

(a)(1)(A) After the expiration of six (6) years after the date on which the first board of directors takes office in a city organized under this chapter, a petition may be presented to the mayor. It shall be signed by electors equal in number to fifteen percent (15%) of the aggregate number of ballots cast for all candidates for director in that position for which the greatest number of ballots were cast in the preceding general election. Whereupon, the mayor shall, by proclamation, submit the question of organization of the city under the aldermanic form of government at a special election to be held at a time specified therein, not less than thirty (30) days after the date of the proclamation.

(B)(i) The special election shall occur on the second Tuesday of any month, except as provided in subdivision (a)(1)(B)(ii) of this section.

(ii)(a)(1) Special elections held in months in which a presidential preferential primary election, preferential primary election, general primary election, or general election is scheduled to occur shall be held on the date of the presidential preferential primary election, preferential primary election, general primary election, or general election.

(2)(A)(i) If a special election is held on the date of the presidential preferential primary election, preferential primary election, or general primary election, the issue or issues to be voted upon at the special election shall be included on the ballot of each political party.

SECTION 64. Arkansas Code § 24-12-103(d), concerning elections on the issue on paid nonuniformed employee’s pensions, is amended to read as follows:

(d)(1) In the event the question shall not, for any reason, be voted upon at the next general city election after the passage and approval of this act, the question may be submitted at any other general or special election held in the city as provided in this section.

(2)(A) The election shall occur on the second Tuesday of any month, except as provided in subdivision (d)(2)(B) of this section.

(B)(i)(a) Elections held in months in which a presidential preferential primary election, preferential primary election, general primary election, or general election is scheduled to occur shall be held on the date of the presidential preferential primary election, preferential primary election, general primary election, or general election.

(b)(1)(A) If an election is held on the date of the presidential preferential primary election, preferential primary election, or general primary election, the issue or issues to be voted upon at the election shall be included on the ballot of each political party.

(B) However, separate ballots containing only the issue or issues to be voted upon at the election shall be prepared and made available to voters requesting a separate ballot.

(2) No voter shall be required to vote in a political party’s presidential preferential primary, preferential primary, or general
