- (1) Prohibits racial profiling as defined in § 12-12-1401;
- (2) Requires that law enforcement officers have reasonable suspicion prior to a stop, arrest, or detention;
- (3) Defines reasonable suspicion, to ensure that individuals are stopped for valid reasons and that race, ethnicity, national origin, or religion is not the basis for stops for violations for which nongroup members would not be stopped;
- (4) Requires law enforcement officers to identify themselves by full name and jurisdiction and state the reason for the stop and when possible present written identification;
- (5) Provides for a systematic review process by supervising personnel within a department or law enforcement agency for investigating allegations of racial profiling to determine whether any officers of the law enforcement agency have a pattern of stopping or searching persons, and if the review reveals a pattern, requires an investigation to determine whether a trend is present indicating that an officer may be using race, ethnicity, national origin, or religion as a basis for investigating other violations of criminal law;
- (6) When a supervisor or other reviewer has detected a pattern of racial profiling, provides timely assistance, remediation, or discipline for individual law enforcement officers who have been found to be profiling by race, ethnicity, national origin, or religion;
- (7) Ensures that supervisors will not retaliate against officers who report racial profiling by others; and
- (8) Provides standards for the use of in-car audio and visual equipment, including the duration for which the recordings are preserved.

(b) Each law enforcement agency shall include a copy of the agency's policy in the annual report that the agency submits to the Division of Legislative Audit."

STATE OF ARKANSAS
OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR
State Capitol
Little Rock 72201

April 11, 2005

TO THE PRESIDENT AND MEMBERS OF THE SENATE

Dear Mr. President and Senators:

This is to provide notice that pursuant to Article 6, Section 15 of the Arkansas Constitution, on this date I vetoed Senate Bill 1174, a measure from the Eighty-Fifth General Assembly. Also in accordance with Article 6, Section 15, the bill is being returned to this body, the originating house for the bill, and accompanied this letter.

This bill would give cities the opportunity to create zones allowing open container consumption of alcohol beyond the borders of licensed establishments. While I realize that my veto may not be sustained, and I respect the will of the legislature, I cannot in good conscience sign a bill that would make it easier for underage drinkers to access alcohol in our streets. An issue that both my wife and I have worked prominently on during my tenure as Governor is to combat illegal, underage drinking. Allowing people to take open containers of alcohol from monitored and enclosed premises to public streets will make it easier for underage drinkers to access alcohol.

I can't believe that our tourism industry will be dependent on people's ability to carry about alcohol in the streets, not can I believe that the law enforcement community would welcome these additional burdens.

I respectfully request that you sustain this veto.

Sincerely,
(SIGNED) MIKE HUCKABEE
Governor
