“SECTION 1. Arkansas Code Title 18, Chapter 60, Subchapter 5 is amended to add an additional section to read as follows:

18-60-512. Quieting title to mineral rights.

(a) It is the intention of the General Assembly by the enactment of this section to encourage and promote a judicial resolution to the ascertainment of title to mineral rights whenever possible in light of decisions of the Arkansas Supreme Court such as Sorkin v. Myers, 216 Ark. 908, 227 S.W.2d 958 (1950) and Dawdy v. Holt, 281 Ark. 171, 662 S.W.2d 818 (1984) recognizing the uncertain status of the title to numerous mineral interests in the state.

(b) A surface owner or the holder of a tax deed to a mineral interest issued by a county clerk before January 1, 1984, may petition under this subchapter to quiet and confirm in the surface owner or holder of the tax deed the title to the mineral rights:

- (1) Beneath the land of the surface owner; or
- (2) Described in the tax deed issued by the county clerk.

(c) The following parties are necessary parties to an action under this section and shall be summoned in accordance with Rule 4 of the Arkansas Rules of Civil Procedure if the party does not enter an appearance:

- (1) The surface owner;
- (2) A prior surface owner at any time on or after the time that the mineral interest was severed from the surface estate;

- (5) Any other party that the plaintiff knows claims an interest in the mineral rights.

(d) In an action under this section the court:

- (1) Shall determine by a preponderance of the evidence under equitable principles the rightful ownership of the mineral rights; and
- (2) Shall consider:

(A) All facts and circumstances surrounding the severance of the mineral interest;

(B) The strength of the claim of the holder of a tax deed to the mineral interest without disqualification solely because the delinquent mineral interest was not subjoined to the surface estate in the books of the county assessor due to the listing of the mineral interest in a separate book than the surface estate;

(C) The period of time and the amount of all taxes paid under a tax deed to the minerals; and

(D) Any other fact or circumstance the court deems appropriate.

(e) If title to the mineral interest is not quieted and confirmed in a party that alone or in conjunction with the party's predecessors paid the taxes for more than five (5) consecutive years under a tax deed to the mineral rights that was issued before January 1, 1984, the court shall:

(1) Order the party that is awarded a decree quieting and confirming title to the mineral rights to reimburse the tax payments of a party that alone or in conjunction with the party's predecessors paid the taxes for more than five (5) consecutive years under a tax deed to the mineral rights that was issued before January 1, 1984; and

(2) Withhold entry of judgment until the tax payments are reimbursed under subdivision (d)(1) of this section."

A consent order must be signed by the person to whom it is issued or by the person's authorized representative, and must indicate agreement with the terms contained in the order. A consent order may provide that it does not constitute an admission by a person that this chapter or a rule adopted or an order issued under this chapter has been violated.

WHEREAS, Ms. Vining is the author of the poem "Arkansas, The Natural State" that reads as follows:

Arkansas, The Natural State

I stood today on top of Petit Jean
 And felt a kindredship to all I found,
 And I, intrigued by such a lovely scene,
 Was grateful for the beauties that abound.

The spirit of a mountain miss was host,
Her phantom figure hovered, light as wind,
And I became enchanted by her ghost,
As we stood on the ledge at river's bend.
I asked her of her legend and its truth;
Of how she stowed away to sail from France,
Of how she cropped her hair; became uncouth,
To give her love and lover one more chance.
"It is all truth; the future will proclaim
My spirit guards this mount which bears my name."
Then, as we talked, my personage subdued,
And I became, as Petit Jean, a ghost,
And with uncanny knowledge I reviewed
Historic deeds of others who could boast,
Of coming to this great green state to live;
To homestead and to plow their plots of land;
To mine the hills; to hunt the woods and give
Their very lives to make it far more grand.
I spoke to men who also came to look
For ways of life upon the river's road;
They pushed their crafts to every shallow nook
And rounded bends of hardship with each load.
The Indians told me their tales of woe,
Of how they battled as both friend and foe.
They told me how De Soto searched for gold
And, trudging through the swamps to look for it,
As upward, through the mountains and the cold,
He traded with the natives, matching wit.
La Salle then came to claim the Arkansas
But left to join another group of men,
De Tonty came to start, as did John Law,
A river post where trading could begin.
These men with whom I talked could really boast
Of being first to settle on this land,
Of fighting long and hard to save the Post
Where then was housed the laws and all command.

My spirit saw the past and lived it through,
A vision of the old when it was new.
As history passes, the seasons came in view,
And time and space and beauty knew no date.
I saw each month in its most brilliant hue
And gazed at it as if I tempted fate.
I looked at Spring and thought it surely best,
For everywhere the land was newly green,
The pristine white of dogwood seemed to test
The worthiness and beauty of each scene.
Then summer came with nesting meadowlarks,
And I beheld the golden days of fun,
As tourists came with camping gear to parks,
And found their pleasures under shade and sun.
I watched the summer visitors with awe,
They loved this state of mine . . .this Arkansas.
Perhaps they liked spelunking in a cave,
Or digging for a diamond at the mine,
Or floating trips that made of them a slave
To mountain streams, to setting out trotline.
Perhaps they liked the baths at old Hot Springs,
Or climbing under rushing waterfalls,
Or smelling the sweet air that summer brings,
Or listening to whippoorwills' faint calls.
I think they surely liked the little creeks,
That tumble down deep-set against tall bluffs.
I think they liked the deer and quail that seeks
New hideouts when invaders find their roughs.
The eager tourists came to see our state
Because the opportunities are great.
Then suddenly, as Autumn took her turn,
The Ozark Hills became a brilliant hue.
In blazing reds the forest seemed to burn
Across the valleys, up the mountains too.
In delta lands I saw vast cotton crops,
And harvest fields of rice, bowed down with grain.

The short-leaf pines were green with heavy tops,
And muscadines hung heavy down the lane.
Then winter came attired in snowfall white,
And lovely landscapes suddenly seemed bare.
The prairie sky was filled with ducks in flight,
And sounds of happy hunters filled the air.
O Arkansas, which season is your best?
Each one seems far more lovely than the rest.
What makes you great? I wondered as I looked.
Is it your timber, standing straight and tall?
Is it your rivers wide and roughly crooked?
Is it your lovely Ozarks in the fall?
Is it your heritage that makes you grand,
Your opportunities . . . yet still unknown?
Is it your rich oil fields, or delta land
That makes men proud to choose you for their own?
O Arkansas, I see your very breath,
In hazy clouds that skim your vast terrain.
I know about your struggling with death
And I have felt your birth with labored pain.
O land of mine, I find you truly great,
No wonder you are called "The Natural State",

Current employees whose salaries are awarded a one time adjustment and whose salaries exceed Pay Level IV, shall be eligible to receive such adjustment, not to exceed six percent, in a lump sum payment and such payment shall not be construed as exceeding the maximum salary for the grade.

As a pre-requisite to implementation of the rates of pay authorized in this section, the Arkansas State Police shall submit a salary structure and administration plan that addresses the recruiting and retention needs of the Department for approval by the Chief Fiscal Officer of the State and approval by the Arkansas Legislative Council or Joint Budget Committee.

Determining the maximum number of employees and the maximum amount of appropriation and general revenue funding for a state agency each fiscal year is the prerogative of the General Assembly. This is usually accomplished by delineating such maximums in the appropriation act(s) for a state agency and the general revenue allocations authorized for each fund and fund account by amendment to the Revenue Stabilization law. Further, the General Assembly has determined that the Department of Arkansas State Police may operate more efficiently if some flexibility is provided to the Department of Arkansas State Police authorizing broad powers under this Section. Therefore, it is both necessary and appropriate that the General Assembly maintain oversight by requiring prior approval of the Legislative Council or

Joint Budget Committee as provided by this section. The requirement of approval by the Legislative Council or Joint Budget Committee is not a severable part of this section. If the requirement of approval by the Legislative Council or Joint Budget Committee is ruled unconstitutional by a court of competent jurisdiction, this entire section is void.

The provisions of this section shall be in full force and effect for the biennium beginning July 1, 2007 and ending June 30, 2009.

SECTION 14. SPECIAL LANGUAGE. NOT TO BE INCORPORATED INTO THE ARKANSAS CODE NOR PUBLISHED SEPARATELY AS SPECIAL, LOCAL AND TEMPORARY LAW. PROMOTIONAL ITEMS. The Department of Arkansas State Police is hereby authorized to purchase from Maintenance & General Operations Classifications in the Operations Appropriation provided by this Act, up to an amount not to exceed $2,500 each fiscal year, promotional items, authorized by the Director of the Department to meet requirements of the Arkansas State Police Strategic Recruitment Plan.

The provisions of this section shall be in effect only from July 1, 2007 through June 30, 2009."

“SECTION 1. Arkansas Code § 7-7-205 is amended to read as follows:

7-7-205. Petition requirements for new political parties.

(a)(1) A group desiring to form a new political party shall do so by filing a petition with the Secretary of State.

(2) The petition shall contain at the time of filing the signatures of qualified electors of this state equal in number to ~~at least three percent (3%) of the total number of votes cast for the office of Governor or nominees for presidential electors, whichever is less, at the last preceding election~~ the signatures of at least ten thousand (10,000) registered voters in the state.

(3) The Secretary of State shall not accept for filing any new party petition that is not prima facie sufficient at the time of filing.

(4) The petitions shall be circulated during ~~the~~ any sixty (60) day period ~~beginning one hundred fifty (150) days prior to the deadline for filing the petitions with the Secretary of State.~~

(b) The petition shall declare the intent of organizing a political party, the name of which shall be stated in the declaration, and of participating in the next general election. No political party or group shall assume a name or designation which is so familiar, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, as to confuse or mislead the voters at an election.

~~(d)~~(c) The Secretary of State shall determine the sufficiency of the signatures submitted within thirty (30) days of filing.

~~(e)~~(d) If the petition is determined to be insufficient, the Secretary of State shall forthwith notify the sponsors in writing, through their designated agent, and shall set forth his reasons for so finding. ~~When the notice is delivered, the sponsors shall have an additional fifteen (15) days in which to do any or all of the following:~~

~~(1) Solicit and obtain additional signatures;~~

~~(2) Submit proof to show that the rejected signatures, or some of them, are good and should be counted; or~~

~~(g)~~(e)(1) Upon certification of sufficiency by the Secretary of State, a new political party shall be declared by the Secretary of State.

(2) A new political party formed by the petition process may nominate candidates by convention for the first election after certification.

(3) Nominated candidates shall file a political practice pledge with the Secretary of State or county clerk, as the case may be, no later than sixty (60) days prior to the general election.

(4) If the new party maintains party status by obtaining three percent (3%) of the total vote cast for the office of Governor or nominees for presidential electors at the first election after certification, the new political party shall nominate candidates in the party primary as set forth in § 7-7-101 et seq.

~~(h)~~(f) Any challenges to the certification of the Secretary of State shall be filed with the Pulaski County Circuit Court.”
