Department of Transformation and Shared Services

Governor Sarah Huckabee Sanders

Secretary Joseph Wood

Director Edward Armstrong

June 2, 2023

The Honorable Scott Flippo, Co-Chairperson
The Honorable Les D. Eaves, Co-Chairperson
ALC Review
State Capitol Building, Room 315
Little Rock, Arkansas 72201

Dear Senator Flippo and Representative Eaves,

Under Arkansas Procurement Law, all non-exempt contracts for "services", as defined in Arkansas Procurement Law, must be presented for legislative review if they have an annual contract amount that equals or exceeds fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) in any contract year or a total projected contract amount of three hundred fifty thousand dollars ($350,000) over the term of the contract. See Ark. Code Ann. § 19-11-265.

No contract submitted by TSS OSP appear, on their face, to have been procured in violation of Arkansas Procurement Law. We ask for their favorable review.

Should you have any questions, we will do our best to see that they are answered.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Edward R. Armstrong".

Edward R. Armstrong
Director, Office of State Procurement
Dept. of Transformation and Shared Services

Office of State Procurement

	230,080.00		Symplicity will provide a full suite of integrated systems and tools for the Student affairs, Title IX and Disability service space. The Integrated system will include Advocate-Student Conduct Case Management, Accomodate Accessibility Resources Management, Horizons-Study Abroad Management, Residence-Residential Life and CSM-Career Services management system. This will be a data integration between offices in student affairs that allows staff to share key information and collaborate in real-time. Key staff may access an integrate student record displaying key information from multiple Symplicity's powered products deployed at the institution as well as dashboard reports showing overall student activity and involvement, which significantly enhances institutional retention efforts. It also allows institutions to holistically view student activities across various offices. This single data integration layer between Symplicity's platform and the SIS is a unique capacity that saves thousands of dollars in consulting and other technology-related implementation fees.

Amd. 4	190,020.00	938,543.86	The students are receiving paid work experiences as a result of the new regulations of the Work Innovation and Opportunities Act which mandates Pre-Employment transition services be arranged for students with disabilities to help them make career decisions once they leave the high school setting. A major component is having a work experience. AR Rehabilitation Services has arranged for paid work experiences for these students. Because the students are on social security, when they earn money, their benefits check can be discontinued or reduced. In some situations the students and their families can end up owing social security if earnings are not reported correctly and with proper documentation. Additionally, there are incentives that help students plan for full-time employment or training after high school, which will eventually lead to ongoing employment for these students. The counseling on benefits planning will ensure that students and their parents or guardians make informed choices about choosing work over remaining on social security. This program aligns with the EO 10-17, the Employment First Initiative.	06/30/2024
