Upon motion of Representative Minton, HOUSE BILL NO. 1031 was placed back on second reading for the purpose of amendment.

AMENDMENT NO. 3 TO HOUSE BILL NO. 1031

Amend HOUSE BILL NO. 1031 as engrossed, H2/5/01:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and substitute:

“SECTION 1. Arkansas Code 7-5-418(b) is amended to read as follows:

(b)(1)(A)(i) In any county containing one hundred fifty thousand (150,000) registered voters or more, the county board of election commissioners may decide to hold early voting at additional polling sites outside the offices of the county clerk and to include the additional voting locations for a maximum of fifteen (15) days but fewer if it so chooses by majority vote.

~~(B)~~ (ii) The county board shall determine by unanimous vote the location of additional polling sites for early voting.

~~(C)~~ (iii) The county clerk shall publish the location of additional early voting polling sites in a newspaper of general circulation at least five (5) days before early voting begins.

~~(2)~~ (B) The county board shall select the number of election officials necessary to adequately staff the additional early voting polling site or sites as in any other election.

~~(3)(A)~~ (C)(i) The county board shall notify the county clerk of its decision to hold early voting at additional polling sites outside the office of the county clerk within ten (10) days of the decision.

~~(B)~~ (ii) If the county board decides to hold early voting at additional polling sites outside the office of county clerk, the county clerk may choose not to hold early voting within the office of the county clerk. The county clerk shall notify the county board within ten (10) days of the receipt of notice from the county board regarding early voting at additional polling sites.

~~(4)~~ (D) The early voting election official shall record the date on all pages of the early voting roster or early voting request form and keep a daily record of the number of early ballots cast.

~~(5)(A)~~ ~~The county board may vote to extend the normal hours for voting during early voting.~~

~~(B)~~ (E) The county clerk shall publish the additional hours for early voting with the location of additional early voting polling sites in a newspaper of general circulation at least five (5) days before early voting begins.

(2)(A)(i) In any county the county board of election commissioners and the county clerk may unanimously decide to hold early voting at additional polling sites outside the offices of the county clerk and to include the additional voting locations for a maximum of fifteen (15) days but fewer if it so chooses by majority vote.

(ii) The county board and the county clerk shall determine by unanimous vote the location of additional polling sites for early voting.

(iii) The county clerk shall publish the location of additional early voting polling sites in a newspaper of general circulation at least ten (10) days before early voting begins.

(B) The early voting election official shall record the date on all pages of the early voting roster or early voting request form and keep a daily record of the number of early ballots cast.

(C) The county clerk shall publish the additional hours for early voting with the location of additional early voting polling sites in a newspaper of general circulation at least five (5) days before early voting begins.”

SECTION 2. Arkansas Code 15-21-204 is amended to read as follows:

15-21-204. Advisory board - Duties.

The Land Survey Advisory Board created by this subchapter shall act in an advisory capacity to the ~~State Geologist~~ Commissioner of State Lands and the State Surveyor in all matters relative to formulating policies of the Division of Land Surveys and in promulgating the regulations designed to establish uniform professional surveying and mapping methods and standards for the state and in formulating other policies, practices, and regulations as the ~~State Geologist~~ Commissioner of State Lands and the State Surveyor shall deem necessary to carry out the purpose and intent of this subchapter.

SECTION 3. Arkansas Code 15-21-205 is amended to read as follows:

15-21-205. State Surveyor - Generally.

(a) The Division of Land Surveys shall be headed by and shall be under the direction, supervision, and control of the State Surveyor.

(b) The State Surveyor shall:

(1) Be a person of proven administrative ability, a registered land surveyor, and a resident of the State of Arkansas with training and experience properly qualifying him for the performance of his official duties;

(2) Be appointed by and serve at the pleasure of the ~~State Geologist~~ Commissioner of State Lands, provided the ~~State Geologist~~ Commissioner of State Lands shall appoint the State Surveyor after consulting with the State Board of Registration for Professional Engineers and Land Surveyors and the Arkansas Association of Registered Land Surveyors;

(3) Serve until dismissed by the ~~State Geologist~~ Commissioner of State Lands;

(4) Devote his full time to the performance of his official functions and duties as prescribed in this subchapter;

(5) Hold no other lucrative position while serving as State Surveyor;
and

(6) Receive such compensation as may be prescribed by law.

SECTION 4. Arkansas Code 15-21-206 is amended to read as follows:

15-21-206. State Surveyor - Powers and duties.

The State Surveyor, acting under the supervision and direction and with the approval of the ~~Office of the State Geologist of the Arkansas Geological Commission~~ Commissioner of State Lands, shall have the following authority and responsibility:

(1)(A) To restore, maintain, and preserve the land survey monuments, section corners, and quarter section corners established by the United States Public Land Survey within the State of Arkansas, together with all pertinent field notes, plats, and documents; and

(B) To restore, establish, maintain, and preserve other boundary markers as may be determined to be necessary or important in establishing and maintaining accurate land descriptions in this state;

(2)(A) To design and cause to be placed at established public land survey corner sites, where practical, substantial monuments permanently indicating with words and figures the exact location involved.

(B) If the monuments cannot be placed at the exact corner point, then witness corners of similar design shall be placed as near as is possible with words and figures indicating the bearing and distance to the true corner;

(3) To establish, maintain, and provide safe storage facilities for a comprehensive system of recordation of information respecting all monuments established by the United States Public Land Survey within this state, and any records as may be pertinent to the division's establishment or maintenance of other land corners, Arkansas coordinate system stations and accessories, and monuments in general;

(4) To extend throughout the state a triangulation and levelling net of precision whereby the Arkansas Coordinate System 1983, § 15-21-301 et seq., already initiated in this state by the United States National Geodetic Survey may be made to cover to the necessary extent those areas of the state which do not now have enough geodetic control stations to permit the general use of the system by land surveyors and others;

(5) To collect and preserve information obtained from surveys made by those authorized to establish land monuments or land boundaries and to assist in the proper recording of the same by the duly constituted county officials or other appropriate officials;

(6)(A) To furnish certified copies of records created or maintained by the division to any person, entity, or agency upon request therefor and payment of the prescribed fees.

(B) All such records, when certified by the State Surveyor or a designated assistant, shall be admissible in evidence in any court in this state as the original record filed with this agency;

(7)(A) To prescribe reasonable rules and regulations not inconsistent with law designed to establish uniform professional surveying and mapping methods and standards in this state;

(B) To disseminate the rules and regulations to those engaged in the profession of land surveying; and

(C) To administer the regulations by referring evidence of violations to the Advisory Board to the Division of Land Surveys as provided below;

(8) To promote the training and the increase in number of quality surveyors in this state;

(9) To receive and investigate complaints against any surveyor and to present the results from the investigation of complaints to the Arkansas State Board of Registration for Professional Engineers and Land Surveyors for such action as the board shall deem appropriate;

(10) To assist the county assessors in establishing accurate land descriptions of the state-owned or state-claimed lands and to assist the public and private surveyors to obtain land ownership information for surveying purposes;

(11) To accept for the state gifts, grants, and donations from any and all persons, corporations, associations, and foundations and from the federal or state government or any agency or program thereof to be deposited ~~in the State Treasury to the credit of the Land Surveys Fund~~ in a financial institution in this state;

(12) To enter into such agreements or contracts with agencies of the United States Government, agencies of the State of Arkansas, other states, and registered land surveyors as he deems necessary or desirable to properly plan and execute projects within the scope and purpose of this subchapter; and

(13) To employ such surveyors and other professional and nonprofessional assistants and to take other reasonable action as deemed necessary to carry out the purposes of this subchapter.

SECTION 5. Arkansas Code 15-21-210 is amended to read as follows:

15-21-210. Sale of information by division.

(a) The Division of Land Surveys may produce, reproduce, and sell maps, plats, and records and shall prescribe a reasonable charge therefor.

(b) All income derived from these sales shall be deposited in ~~the State Treasury to the credit of the "Land Surveys Fund" which is established~~ a financial institution in this state."

Upon motion of Representative Rackley, HOUSE BILL NO. 2493 was placed back on second reading for the purpose of amendment.

AMENDMENT NO. 1 TO HOUSE BILL NO. 2493

Amend HOUSE BILL NO. 2493 as originally introduced:

Page 1, delete lines 21 through 23 and substitute:

"SECTION 1. Arkansas Code 26-74-307 is amended to read as follows:

26-74-307. Call for tax election.

(a) The county quorum courts may call an election for the levy of a countywide sales tax in an amount of one-fourth of one percent (.25%), one-half of one percent (0.5%), three-fourths of one percent (.75%), or one percent (1%). The election shall be held ~~within one hundred twenty (120) days of the ordinance calling for the election~~ in conjunction with a primary or general election.

(b) The quorum courts shall notify their respective county board of election commissioners that the measure has been referred to the vote of the people and shall submit a copy of the ballot title to their respective boards.

SECTION 2. Arkansas Code 26-74-207 is amended to read as follows:

26-74-207. Call for tax election.

(a) The county quorum courts may call an election for the levy of a county-wide sales and use tax in the amount of one-fourth of one percent (0.25%), one-half of one percent (0.50%), three-fourths of one percent (0.75%), or one percent (1%). The election shall be held ~~within one hundred twenty (120) days of the ordinance calling the election~~ in conjunction with a primary or general election.

(b) If petitions are filed requesting an election on the question of the levy of the tax authorized under this subchapter, the quorum court shall submit the question of the levying of the tax to the electors. The petitions must be signed by a number of the legal voters in the county which shall be no less than fifteen percent (15%) of the number of votes cast for the office of circuit clerk at the last preceding general election. The election shall be held ~~within one hundred twenty (120) days of the filing of the petitions~~ in conjunction with a primary or general election.

(c) The quorum courts shall notify their respective county boards of election commissioners that the measure has been referred to the vote of the people and shall submit a copy of the ballot title to their respective boards.

SECTION 3. Arkansas Code 14-164-309(a) and (b), concerning elections for local government bodies, is amended to read as follows:

(a) The question of the issuance of such bonds shall be submitted to the electors of the county or municipality at the general election or at a ~~special~~ primary election ~~called for that purpose as provided in the ordinance and held in the manner provided in this subchapter.~~

(b) Except as otherwise provided in this subchapter, the election shall be held and conducted in the same manner as a ~~special~~ primary or general election under the election laws of the state.

SECTION 4. Arkansas Code 26-74-402 is amended to read as follows:

26-74-402. Call for tax election.

(a) The county quorum court of any county not having a countywide one percent (1%) sales and use tax on March 14, 1991 may call an election for the levy of a one-half percent (0.5%) countywide sales and use tax for any purpose for which the county general fund or county road fund may be used including allocating portions of this tax to the municipalities located therein. The election shall be held ~~within one hundred twenty (120) days of the ordinance calling the election~~ in conjunction with a primary or general election.

(b) The quorum courts shall notify their respective county board of election commissioners that the measure has been referred to the vote of the people and shall submit a copy of the ballot title to their respective boards.

SECTION 5. Arkansas Code 14-164-338(a), concerning elections for alternative issuance of bonds, is amended to read as follows:

(a) ~~[This version of subsection (a) is effective until April 12, 1999, at which time it is superceded by Acts 1999, No. 1324, § 1. This subsection becomes effective again after December 31, 2000]~~ If a legislative body determines that a sales and use tax of one percent (1%) or less authorized by § 14-164-327 would, if levied for no longer than twenty-four (24) months, produce sufficient revenue to finance capital improvements of a public nature without resorting to a bond issue, the legislative body may dispense with the issuance of bonds, levy the tax for no longer than twenty-four (24) months, and appropriate the resulting revenues, subject to the Arkansas Constitution, Article 12, § 4, paragraphs 2-4, provided:

(1) A majority of the qualified electors of the county or municipality voting on the question at a general or ~~special~~ primary election shall have approved the tax and the purpose of the capital improvements; and

(2) The revenues from the tax are expended solely for the purpose authorized by the electorate.

~~(a) [As enacted by Acts 1324, § 1; this version of subsection (a) is effective from April 12, 1999, until December 31, 2000] If a legislative body determines that a sales and use tax of one percent (1%) or less as authorized by § 14-164-327, if levied for no longer than sixty (60) months, would produce sufficient revenue to finance capital improvements of a public nature without resorting to a bond issue, the legislative body may dispense with the issuance of bonds, levy the tax for no longer than sixty (60) months, and appropriate the resulting revenues, subject to Arkansas Constitution, Article 12, § 4, paragraphs 2-4, provided:~~

~~(1) A majority of the qualified electors of the county or municipality voting on the question at a general or special election shall have approved the tax and the purpose or purposes of the capital improvements; and~~

~~(2) The revenues from the tax are expended solely for the purpose or purposes authorized by the electorate.~~

SECTION 6. Arkansas Code 26-73-111(a) through (c), concerning elections for special local sales and use tax, is amended to read as follows:

(a) On the date of the adoption of an ordinance levying a special local sales and use tax for the benefit of such county, city, or town, the county, city, or town shall provide, by ordinance, for calling and holding a ~~special~~ an election on such question.

(b) The ~~special~~ election shall be conducted in the manner provided by law for all county or municipal elections unless otherwise specified herein.

(c) The ~~special~~ election shall be called ~~for a date within one hundred twenty (120) days from the date of the action of the governing body in establishing the date of the election. The date for the special election may be the same as the date for the next regular county or municipal election, if such election is to be held within the one hundred twenty-day period~~ held in conjunction with a primary or general election.

SECTION 7. Arkansas Code 14-20-112(a), concerning elections for county gross receipts tax on hotels and restaurants, is amended to read as follows:

(a)(1) Any county in which there is located a city that levies a two percent (2%) gross receipts tax on hotels, motels, and restaurants as authorized in §§ 26-75-601 - 26-75-613 may, by ordinance of the county quorum court, levy a like tax at the same rate as the levying city or at a lesser rate upon the furnishing of hotel and motel accommodations and upon the gross receipts of restaurants and similar establishments located within the county outside the boundaries of the levying municipality.

(2) The court levying a tax by ordinance as authorized in this section shall submit the question of the levying of such a tax to the electors of the county if petitions requesting it are filed at a primary or general election. The petitions must be signed by not less than five hundred (500) electors of the county and must be filed with the court within thirty (30) days after the adoption of the ordinance levying the tax.

SECTION 8. Arkansas Code 26-74-502 is amended to read as follows:

26-74-502. Petitions requesting an election.

(a) If petitions are filed requesting an election for an initiated ordinance levying the tax authorized under this subchapter, the quorum court shall submit the question of the levying of the tax to the electors. The petitions must be signed by not less than five hundred (500) electors of the county. The election shall be held ~~within one hundred twenty (120) days of the filing of the petitions~~ in conjunction with a primary or special election. The tax shall be levied upon approval of a majority of the qualified electors voting on the issue at the election.

(b) If petitions requesting a referendum election are filed, the quorum court levying a tax under this subchapter shall submit the question of the levying of the tax to the electors. The petitions must be signed by not less than five hundred (500) electors of the county and must be filed with the quorum court within thirty (30) days after the adoption of the ordinance levying the tax.

SECTION 9. Arkansas Code 14-174-103(a), concerning elections for economic development taxes, is amended to read as follows:

(a) In addition to all other authority of local governments to levy taxes provided by law, any county, acting through its quorum court, or any municipality, acting through its governing body, may levy any tax. However, no ordinance levying any tax authorized by this subchapter shall be valid until adopted at a ~~special~~ primary or general election by qualified electors of the city or in the county where the tax is to be imposed, as the case may be. An election will also be required to increase, decrease, or repeal a tax levied pursuant to this subchapter.

SECTION 10. Arkansas Code 26-75-308(a), concerning elections for municipal sales and use tax, is amended to read as follows:

(a) On the date of adoption of an ordinance levying a local sales and use tax for the benefit of the city, or within thirty (30) days following the adoption of the ordinance, the city shall provide, by ordinance, for the calling and holding of a ~~special~~ an election on the question. The ~~special~~ election shall be ~~called for a date~~

~~within one hundred twenty (120) days from the date of action of the governing body in establishing the date of election. The date for the special election may be the same as the date for the next regular municipal election if the election is to be held within the one hundred twenty-day period~~ held in conjunction with a primary or general election. The governing body of the city shall notify the county board of election commissioners that the measure has been referred to the vote of the people and shall submit a copy of the ballot title to the board.

SECTION 11. Arkansas Code 26-75-208(a), concerning elections for municipal sales and use tax, is amended to read as follows:

(a) On the date of adoption of an ordinance levying a local sales and use tax for the benefit of the city, or within thirty (30) days following the adoption of such ordinance, the city shall provide, by ordinance, for the calling and holding of a ~~special~~ an election on the question. ~~The special election shall be called for a date within one hundred twenty (120) days from the date of action of the governing body in establishing the date of election. The date for the special election may be the same as the date for the next regular municipal election if the election is to be held within the one hundred twenty-day period~~ held in conjunction with a primary or general election. The governing body of the city shall notify the county board of election commissioners that the measure has been referred to the vote of the people and shall submit a copy of the ballot title to the board.

SECTION 12. Arkansas Code 26-75-503(b), concerning elections for the gross receipts tax, is amended to read as follows:

(b) An election shall be held in the levying city on the question of whether the ordinance shall become effective ~~within sixty (60) days after the receipt of a certified copy of the ordinance~~ in conjunction with a primary or general election and shall be conducted in the manner prescribed by law for holding state, county, or municipal elections, so far as the manner may be applicable.

SECTION 13. Arkansas Code 26-75-404(a) and (b), concerning elections for sales and use taxes for parks and recreation, are amended to read as follows:

(a)~~(1)~~ When the governing body of any city or town adopts an ordinance levying a local sales and use tax as authorized in this subchapter, the governing body shall provide, either in the ordinance levying the tax or in a separate ordinance, for submission of the question of the levy to the qualified electors of the city or town either at the next ~~regular municipal election or at a special election~~ primary or general election.

~~(2) If the ordinance provides for submitting the question at a special election, the election shall be called for a date not less than sixty (60) nor more than ninety (90) days from the date of the adoption of the ordinance calling the election.~~

(b) The governing body of the city or town shall notify the county board of election commissioners that the question of the levy of the tax has been referred to a vote of the people at the next regular ~~municipal election or at a special~~ primary or general election ~~to be held on the date set by ordinance~~ and shall submit a copy of the ballot title to the county board of election commissioners.

SECTION 14. Arkansas Code 26-75-702 is amended to read as follows:

The governing body of a city levying the tax authorized in this subchapter shall submit the question of levying such a tax to the electors of the city, if petitions signed by not less than five hundred (500) qualified electors of the city requesting an election are filed with the governing body of the city ~~within thirty (30) days after the adoption of the ordinance levying the tax~~ at an election held in conjunction with a primary or general election."

AMENDMENT NO. 1 TO HOUSE BILL NO. 2654

Amend HOUSE BILL NO. 2654 as originally introduced:

Delete Section 1 and substitute the following:

"SECTION 1. Arkansas Code 9-9-220(c) is amended to read as follows:

(c) In addition to any other proceeding provided by law, the relationship of parent and child may be terminated by a court order issued under this subchapter on any ground provided by other law for termination of the relationship, or on the following grounds:

(1) Abandonment;

(A) A child support order shall provide notice to the non-custodial parent that failure to pay child support or to visit the child for at least one (1) year shall provide the custodial parent with the right to initiate proceedings to terminate the parental rights of the non-custodial parent.

(B) If the notification clause required by subdivision (c)(1)(A) is not in the child support order, the custodial parent, prior to termination of parental rights, shall notify the non-custodial parent that he or she intends to petition the court to terminate parental rights.

(C)(1) The non-custodial parent shall have three (3) months from the filing of the petition to pay a substantial amount of past due payments owed and to establish a relationship with his or her child or children.

(2) Once payment of a substantial amount under subdivision (c)(1)(C)(1) is made, the custodial parent shall not be permitted to proceed with the adoption nor the termination of parental rights of the non-custodial parent.

(3) The court shall terminate parental rights of the non-custodial parent upon a showing that:

(i) Child support payments have not been made for one (1) year or the custodial parent has not visited the child in the preceding year and the non-custodial parent has not fulfilled the requirements of subdivision (c)(1)(C)(1); or

(ii) That it would not be in the best interest of the child to terminate the parental relationship.

(2) Neglect or abuse, when the court finds the causes are irremediable or will not be remedied by the parent.

(A) If the parents have failed to make reasonable efforts to remedy the causes and such failure has occurred for twelve (12) months, such failure shall raise the rebuttable presumption that the causes will not be remedied.

(B) If the parents have attempted to remedy the causes but have failed to do so within twelve (12) months, and the court finds there is no reasonable likelihood the causes will be remedied by the eighteenth month, such failures shall raise the rebuttable presumption that the causes will not be remedied.

(3) That in the case of a parent not having custody of a child, his consent is being unreasonably withheld contrary to the best interest of the child."

9-9-101. Surrender of custody of minor by hospital.

(a) ~~At the time a petition to adopt or a petition for guardianship in a pending adoption is filed for a minor in the physical custody of a hospital within the State of Arkansas, the court shall issue an order directing the hospital to surrender physical custody of the minor to the petitioners or to the agency or attorney acting for either~~ hospital shall not surrender possession or custody of the minor without examination of:

(1) A photo ID which proves that the person who has filed the petition for adoption is the person requesting possession of the child;

(2) A certified copy of the petition for adoption of the minor to be surrendered;

(3) A copy of the consent to adopt executed by the birth mother of the minor to be surrendered in conformance with § 9-9-208; and

(4) A copy of the consent to adopt executed by the father of the minor to be surrender in conformance with § 9-9-208, if the father is known and listed on the birth certificate.

(b) If a court in an adoption proceeding or guardianship proceeding in which an adoption is pending orders a hospital to surrender custody of a child to the adoptive parents, or to the agency or attorney acting in their behalf, those entities obeying the order shall not be liable to any person because of their acts provided that the hospital has complied with this section.

(c) Once the documents enumerated in subsection (a) of this section are presented to the hospital, the hospital shall deliver the minor child to the petitioners, or to the agency or attorney acting in their behalf, after the hospital is satisfied as to their identity. ”
