"(7) "Interactive computer service" means an information service, system or access software provider that provides or enables computer access by multiple users to a computer server, including specifically a service or system that provides access to the internet and also the systems operated or services offered by libraries or educational institutions;

(8) "Internet domain name" means a globally unique, hierarchical reference to an Internet host or service, assigned through centralized Internet authorities, comprising a series of character strings separated by periods, with the right-most string specifying the top of the hierarchy;

(9) "Person" shall mean any individual, corporation, partnership, association, limited liability company, any other form or business association or any combination of them;

(10) "Pre-existing business relationship" means that there was a business transaction or communication between the initiator and the recipient of a commercial electronic mail message during the five-year period preceding the receipt of that message. A pre-existing business relationship does not exist after a recipient requests to be removed from the distribution list of a sender. If a sender operates through separate lines of business or divisions and holds itself out to the recipient as that particular line of business or division, rather than as the entity of which the line of business or division is a part, then the line of business or the division shall be treated as the sender for purposes of this section.

(11) "Sexually explicit electronic mail" means a commercial electronic mail that contains material that is harmful to minors or promotes an electronic link to material that is harmful to minors;

(12) "Unsolicited" means without the recipient's express permission."

AND

"a preexisting business or personal relationship with the recipient. The sender of a commercial electronic mail of this nature must still include in the electronic mail message the required disclosures set forth in subdivisions (a)(3) and (a)(4) of this subsection and shall remove the recipient from future mailings if requested."

"electronic mail either directly or through a subsidiary or affiliate. If a recipient has requested to be removed from future mailings, the sender may re-contact the recipient if a pre-existing business relationship has been reestablished or if the recipient has expressly requested to receive future mailings from the sender.

4-88-604. Interactive computer service/electronic mail service provider authority.

(a) An interactive computer service or electronic mail service provider may block the receipt or transmission through its service of any bulk electronic mail that it reasonably believes is, or will be, sent in violation of this article.

(b) An interactive computer service or electronic mail service provider does not violate this section and the injured party shall not have a cause of action against an interactive computer service or mail service provider due to the fact that the interactive computer service or electronic mail service provider:

(1) Is an intermediary between the sender and recipient in the transmission of an e-mail that violates this section; or

(2) Provides transmission of unsolicited commercial electronic mail messages over the provider's computer network or facilities, or shall be liable for any action it voluntarily takes in good faith to block the receipt or transmission through its service of any electronic mail advertisements that it believes is, or will be, sent in violation of this section.

(c) An interactive computer service may disconnect or terminate the service of any person that is in violation of this subchapter."

"(1) Elect, in lieu of actual damages, to recover the lesser of:

(A) Ten dollars ($10.00) per unsolicited commercial electronic mail or unsolicited sexually explicit electronic mail sent to a previously opted out electronic mail address or transmitted through the electronic mail service provider or otherwise sent in violation of this subchapter; or

(B) Twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) per day the violation occurs.

(2) Each prevailing recipient or electronic mail service provider shall be awarded costs and reasonable attorneys fees."

Page 5, delete lines 1 through 16 and substitute the following:

"(c) It is an affirmative defense to a violation of this section if a person can demonstrate that the sender at the time of the alleged violation had:

(1) Maintained a list of consumers who have notified the person not to send any subsequent commercial electronic messages;

(2) Established and implemented with due care, reasonable practices and procedures to effectively prevent unsolicited commercial electronic mail messages in violation of this section;

(3) Trained the sender's personnel in the requirements of this section;
and

(4) Maintained records demonstrating compliance with this section.

4-88-607. Enforcement of subchapter.

(a)(1) Any transmission of unsolicited commercial or sexually explicit electronic mail in violation of this subchapter shall constitute an unfair and deceptive act or practice under § 4-88-107.

(2) All remedies, penalties, and authority granted to the Attorney General under the Arkansas Code § 4-88-101 through § 4-88-113 or this subchapter shall be available to the Attorney General for the enforcement of this subchapter.

(b) The prosecuting attorneys of the various districts and counties of this state shall also have full authority to enforce the provisions of this subchapter.

c) Nothing in the provisions of this subchapter shall prohibit the bringing of a civil action against a violator of this chapter by an individual harmed by a deceptive trade practice."

RE: HOUSE BILL NO. 1545

To Whom It May Concern:

On February 27, 2003 the House voted on HOUSE BILL NO. 1545. The Bill passed resoundingly with over 85 votes. I was informed after the vote that I was registered as one of the few negative votes. It was not my intent to vote no on this bill, and I was not aware that the record was reflecting a no vote on my behalf. My intent was to cast a yes vote. I submit this letter so that my support of HOUSE BILL NO. 1545 is accurately made known to the public. Since the bill passed resoundingly, this error did not impact the passage of the bill.

With Warmest Regards,

/s/ Will Bond

MEMORANDUM

TO: Whom It May Concern
FROM: House Committee on the Journal; Engrossed and Enrolled Bills
DATE: February 28, 2003
SUBJECT: Amendment #2 to HOUSE BILL NO. 1439

*****

The House Committee on the Journal; Engrossed and Enrolled Bills, by this letter, approves the correction of an error in Amendment #2 to HOUSE BILL NO. 1439. In the Amendment, the last paragraph on Page 1 should read, "Page 2, delete lines 1 through 4" instead of "delete lines 1 through 3."

The Committee authorizes the Chief Clerk to carry out the intent of the amendment by correctly engrossing HOUSE BILL NO. 1439.
