“SECTION 7. EMERGENCY CLAUSE. It is found and determined by the General Assembly of the State of Arkansas that premium tax distribution formula is directing state revenues to areas without the need for priority fire and police protection; that police and fire protection services are of extreme importance in the protection of property values and individual lives; that the distribution of premium tax revenues to the areas of the highest need is a top priority; that implementation of a revised distribution formula must be implemented before the normal time for the effectiveness of other laws; and that this act needs to be immediately effective to fulfill that priority. Therefore, an emergency is declared to exist and this act being immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety shall become effective on:

(1) The date of its approval by the Governor;

(2) If the bill is neither approved nor vetoed by the Governor, the expiration of the period of time during which the Governor may veto the bill; or

(1) The Board of Trustees of the Arkansas State Highway Employees' Retirement System to approve of the person's participation in the plan;

(2) The member's deferred retirement benefits to be deposited into an account in which shall be accumulated the member's deferred option contributions, plus interest;

(3) The rate of interest to be credited to each member's deferred option account shall be an amount to be determined by the board and to be paid on the mean balance in the account for the fiscal year;

employer, to the Arkansas State Highway Employees' Retirement System shall cease;

(5) That a member's selection of the deferred retirement option, the time of the retirement deferral, and the selection of the retirement annuity are irrevocable; and

(b)(c) The board may determine any other provisions of the plan, such as the amount of credited service to participate, the method of collections for participants of the plan, and the payment methods in the event of the death of a participant.

SECTION 2. EMERGENCY CLAUSE. It is found and determined by the General Assembly of the State of Arkansas that the benefits for members of the Arkansas State Highway Employees' Retirement System are inadequate; that the benefits should be increased to continue to motivate the highway department employees of our state government; that the most beneficial time to increase the benefits is during the beginning of the state fiscal year; and this act is necessary to take effect at that time. Therefore, an emergency is declared to exist and this act being necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health, and safety shall become effective on July 1, 2003."
