(1) Upon petitions signed by at least a majority of the number of owners of real property located within the designated area consenting to the city exercising the jurisdiction over the designated area; or

(2) After an election held in accordance with the procedure prescribed by § 14-40-303 and then only if a majority of those voting in the election vote in favor of the exercise of the jurisdiction.

SECTION 2. EMERGENCY CLAUSE. It is found and determined by the General Assembly of the State of Arkansas that present law does not provide adequate due process to residents of unincorporated areas to the extent they are within the territorial planning authority of an adjoining municipality; that this act provides that due process; and that until this act becomes effective a large portion of the population of this state will suffer disenfranchisement in regard to municipal planning authority. Therefore, an emergency is declared to exist and this act being immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health, and safety shall become effective on:

- (1) The date of its approval by the Governor;
- (2) If the bill is neither approved nor vetoed by the Governor, the expiration of the period of time during which the Governor may veto the bill; or “SECTION 1. (a) There is created a Department of Agriculture.

(b)(1) The executive head of the department shall be the Secretary of the Department of Agriculture.

(2) The secretary shall be appointed by the Governor and shall serve at the pleasure of the Governor.

(c)(1) The Arkansas Livestock and Poultry Commission, created under Arkansas Code § 2-33-101, and its powers, authorities, duties, and functions are transferred by a type 1 transfer to the Department of Agriculture.

(2) The Department of Rural Services, created under Arkansas Code § 15-6-105, and its powers, authorities, duties, and functions are transferred by a type 2 transfer to the Department of Agriculture.

(3) The Arkansas Rural Development Commission, created under Arkansas Code § 15-6-104, and powers, authorities, duties, and functions are transferred by a type 1 transfer to the Department of Agriculture.

(4) The Arkansas Delta Development Commission, created under Arkansas Code § 15-4-2602, and its powers, authorities, duties, and functions are transferred by a type 1 transfer to the Department of Agriculture.

(5) The State Plant Board, created under Arkansas Code § 2-16-206, and its powers, authorities, duties, and functions are transferred by a type 1 transfer to the Department of Agriculture.

(6) The Division of Agriculture Development of the Arkansas Development Finance Authority, created under Arkansas Code § 15-5-802, and its powers, authorities, duties, and functions are transferred by a type 2 transfer to the Department of Agriculture.

SECTION 2. (a)(1) For the purposes of this act, when any transferred entity is transferred to the Department of Agriculture established under this act by a type 1 transfer, the transferred entity shall be administered under the direction and supervision of the Secretary of the Department of Agriculture, but shall retain exactly the same powers, authorities, duties, and functions prescribed by law as it had prior to the transfer including, but not limited to:

(A) Rulemaking, regulation, licensing, and registration;

(B) The promulgation of rules, rates, regulations, and standards;

(C) The rendering of findings, orders, and adjudications; and

(D) The power to issue bonds and other interest bearing obligations.

(2) The transferred entity shall exercise the powers, authorities, duties, and functions independently of the Secretary of the Department of Agriculture.

(b) Following a type 1 transfer, the members of any statutory board or commission so transferred, and their successors, shall continue to be selected in the manner and serve for the terms provided by the state law applicable to the board or commission as the law is now enacted or hereafter amended.

(c) In addition to the other duties of the Department of Rural Services, the Department of Rural Services shall be responsible for agriculture promotion, marketing, and technology transfer.

SECTION 3. (a)(1) For the purposes of this act, when any transferred entity is transferred to Department of Agriculture established under section 1 of this act by a type 2 transfer, the transferred entity shall be administered under the direction and supervision of the Secretary of the Department of Agriculture.

(2) There is transferred to the Secretary of the Department of Agriculture the transferred entity's powers, authorities, duties, and functions as prescribed by law including, but not limited to:

(A) All rule making, regulation, and licensing;

(B) The promulgation of rules, rates, regulations, and standards; and

(C) The rendering of findings, orders, and adjudications in which it is transferred.

(b) Following a type 1 transfer, the members of any statutory board or commission so transferred, and their successors, shall continue to be selected in the manner and serve for the terms provided by the state law applicable to the board or commission as the law is now enacted or hereafter amended.

SECTION 4. (a)(1) Notwithstanding section 2 of this act, following a type 1 transfer, all administrative functions of any transferred entity shall be performed under the direction and supervision of the Secretary of the Department of Agriculture.

(2) The administrative functions shall include, but not be limited to, all budgeting, fiscal, purchasing, accounting, human resources, payroll, legal, information systems, maintenance, program support, administrative support, and related administrative functions.

(b)(1)(A) Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision (b)(1), the Secretary of the Department of Agriculture, with the advice and consent of the Governor, shall appoint the directors and deputy directors of the respective bureaus, offices, or other divisions under the Department of Agriculture, and they shall serve at the pleasure of the secretary.

(B) The director of the Department of Rural Services shall continue to be appointed under Arkansas Code § 15-6-105.

(C) The executive director of the Arkansas Delta Development Commission shall continue to be appointed under Arkansas Code § 15-4-2604.

(2)(A) Notwithstanding section 2 of this act, following a type 1 transfer, all other personnel, positions, titles, appropriations, funds, assets, materials, data, and information of the transferred entity shall be transferred to the Department of Agriculture to be used as directed by the secretary for the effective operations of the Department of Agriculture.

(B) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, following a type 1 transfer:

(i) Any disbursement of funds authorized by an appropriation act shall be limited to the appropriation for each transferred entity and funds made available by law for the support of the appropriations; and

(ii) the restrictions of the State Purchasing Law, the General Accounting and Budgetary Procedures Law, the Revenue Stabilization Law, the Regular Salary Procedures and Restrictions Act, or their successors, and other fiscal control laws of this state, where applicable, and regulations promulgated by the Department of Finance and Administration, as authorized by law, shall be strictly complied with in the disbursement of the funds.

(3)(A) Following a type 1 transfer, all personnel of the transferred entity shall be employed and serve at the pleasure of the Secretary of the Department of Agriculture.

(B) Notwithstanding, no provision of this act shall be deemed to abolish or diminish the employment rights that may exist under current state law, as now enacted or hereafter amended, of personnel transferred pursuant to the provisions of this act.

(4) Following a type 1 transfer, the transferred entity shall not employ any personnel other than those deemed by the Secretary of the Department of Agriculture to be necessary for the effective operations of the Department of Agriculture.

(c)(1) Nothing in this act shall be deemed to alter the manner of selection or the length of the term of service for any position where state law provides that the Governor shall appoint or select the person occupying the position.

(2) For any person occupying a position on the effective date of this act as a result of a Governor's appointment, nothing in this act shall be deemed to alter that person's continued service in that position or to alter the length of that person's current term.

(d) Any employee who is now a member of any retirement system shall not lose any retirement benefits accrued in the system by virtue of a transfer as provided by this act.

(e) While it is recognized that certain transfers may result in savings through the combination of offices, facilities, and duties or through a reduction in the duplication of functions, points of service currently provided by state government may not be reduced by the Secretary of the Department of Agriculture without review by the Arkansas Legislative Council or Joint Budget Committee and the Office of the Governor.

(f) This act shall not operate to repeal, amend, modify or affect:

(1) The powers heretofore or hereafter established by law applicable to agencies or instrumentalities of the state accorded the separate status of public bodies corporate and politic with the power including, without limitation:

(A) To sue and be sued;

(B) To contract and be contracted with;

(C) To issue bonds or other evidences of indebtedness secured by the revenues as shall be provided by law;

(D) To own or deal in real property

(E) To make loans, and to hold, sell, and transfer promissory notes and mortgages; and

(F) To conduct business in the manner provided by applicable law prior to the adoption of this act;

(2) The creation, maintenance, preservation, and use of cash funds heretofore or hereafter created and held apart from the State Treasury applicable or available to any department, agency or instrumentality, or the power now or hereafter granted by law to pledge the cash funds for the payment of bonds, leases, guaranties, or other evidences of indebtedness of the department, agency, or instrumentality; or

(3) The outstanding obligations of the departments, agencies, or instrumentalities, which obligations shall continue to be enforceable in accordance with the terms thereof, and the legality and enforceability of all the outstanding obligations is affirmed.

SECTION 5. Notwithstanding any other section of this act to the contrary, moneys collected or to be collected by a transferred entity shall be used by the transferred entity for the purposes for which the moneys are collected.

SECTION 6. This act only applies to the transferred entities under section 1 of this act and shall not apply to promotion boards.”

"SECTION 2. This act shall be effective only if Senate Bill 45 as introduced in the Eighty-Fourth General Assembly becomes law.

SECTION 3. EMERGENCY CLAUSE. It is found and determined by the General Assembly of the State of Arkansas that passage of Senate Bill 45 as introduced into the Eighty-Fourth General Assembly may leave the Breast Cancer Control Program and the Breast Cancer Control Advisory Board outside any state agency, potentially disrupting authority to conduct business, placing breast cancer control programs at risk of losing essential funding, and increasing the risks of breast cancer to the citizens of this state. Therefore, an emergency is declared to exist and this act being immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health, and safety shall become effective on:

(1) The date of its approval by the Governor;

(2) If the bill is neither approved nor vetoed by the Governor, the expiration of the period of time during which the Governor may veto the bill; or

(3) If the bill is vetoed by the Governor and the veto is overridden, the date the last house overrides the veto."

(a)(1) Each recorder shall provide and keep in his office a well-bound book and make and enter in the book an index, in alphabetical order, to all books of record wherein deeds, mortgages, or other instruments in writing concerning lands and tenements are recorded, distinguishing the books and pages in which every deed or writing is recorded.

(2) The index shall contain:

(A) The names of the several grantors and grantees, in alphabetical order;

(B) In case the deed is made by a sheriff, the name of the sheriff and the defendant in the execution;

(C) If by executors or administrators, their names and the names of their testator or intestate;

(D) If by attorney, the name of the attorney and his constituent;
and

(E) If by a commissioner, the name of the commissioner and the person whose estate is conveyed.

(3) Each recorder shall make a reference in the several indexes of all deeds and conveyances which may be recorded, so as to afford, at all times, an easy reference to the records.

(4)(A) If an assignment or a satisfaction or release of a mortgage, deed of trust, or other lien is presented for recording, the assignment, satisfaction, or release shall state:

(i) The date the mortgage, deed of trust, or other lien was recorded; and

(ii) The instrument number, book and page numbers, or other recording reference at which the mortgage, deed of trust, or other lien appears of record.

MEMORANDUM

TO: Whom It May Concern
FROM: House Committee on the Journal; Engrossed and Enrolled Bills
DATE: March 17, 2003
SUBJECT: Amendment #4 to House Bill 2269

The House Committee on the Journal; Engrossed and Enrolled Bills, by this letter, approves the correction of an error in Amendment #4 to HB2269. In the Amendment, the first paragraph should read, "Page 8, delete lines 31 through 33" instead of "Page 8, delete lines 29 through 31".

The Committee authorizes the Chief Clerk to carry out the intent of the amendment by correctly engrossing HB2269.

DATE: March 17, 2003
SUBJECT: Amendment #2 to House bill 2417

The House Committee on the Journal; Engrossed and Enrolled Bills, by this letter, approves the correction of an error in Amendment #2 to HB2417. In the Amendment, the sixth sentence of the first paragraph should read, "Page 8, delete lines 30, through 36" instead of "Page 8, delete lines 30 through 26".

The Committee authorizes the Chief Clerk to carry out the intent of the amendment by correctly engrossing HB2417.
