Upon motion of Representative L. Prater, HOUSE BILL NO. 1332 was placed back on second reading for the purpose of amendment.

AMENDMENT NO. 2 TO HOUSE BILL NO. 1332

Amend HOUSE BILL NO. 1332 as engrossed, 3/20/03:

Delete all language after the enacting clause and substitute the following:

“SECTION 1. Arkansas Code Title 26, Chapter 37, Subchapter 2, is amended to add an additional section to read as follows:

26-37-214. Redemption of homestead by taxpayer.

If the taxpayer did not receive actual notice of the sale of his or her homestead, as defined under § 26-26-1118(b), by the Commissioner of State Lands, or his or her designee, by personal service of process at least sixty (60) days before the date of sale, then the taxpayer may redeem the tax-delinquent land by tendering all taxes, penalties, interests, and costs within thirty (30) days after the date of the sale.

SECTION 2. Arkansas Code § 26-37-301, regarding notice to the owner of tax-delinquent land, is amended to add an additional subsection to read as follows:

(e)(1) If the Commissioner of State Lands fails to receive proof that the notice sent by certified mail under this section was received by the owner of a homestead, as defined under § 26-26-1118(b), then the Commissioner of State Lands, or his or her designee, shall provide actual notice to the owner of a homestead, as defined under § 26-26-1118(b), by personal service of process at least sixty (60) days before the date of sale.

(2) For purposes of this subsection (e), “owner of a homestead” means every owner if the homestead is owned by joint tenants and either the husband or the wife if the homestead is owned by tenants by the entirety.

(3) The owner of a homestead shall pay for the additional cost of the notice by personal service of process under this subsection.

SECTION 3. When a homestead, as defined under § 26-26-1118(b), is certified to the Commissioner of State Lands, the county collector shall provide notice to the Commissioner of State Lands that the property is a homestead.”

SECTION 4. This act shall become effective on January 1, 2004.

"SECTION 1. Arkansas Code § 3-3-218 is amended to read as follows:

3-3-218. Duty of care of privilege license holders - Enforcement.

(a) It is the specifically declared policy of the General Assembly that all licenses issued to establishments for the sale or dispensing of alcoholic beverages are privilege licenses, and the holder of such privilege license is to be held to a high duty of care in the operation of the licensed establishment.

(b) It is the duty of every holder of an alcoholic beverage permit issued by the State of Arkansas to operate the business wherein alcoholic beverages are sold or dispensed in a manner which is in the public interest, and does not endanger the public health, welfare, or safety. Failure to maintain this duty of care shall be a violation of this section and grounds for administrative sanctions being taken against the holder of such permit or permits.

(c)(1) The standard of review for the director and the Alcoholic Beverage

Control Board in matters arising herein shall be:

(A) Whether or not the permitted outlet, as it has been operated, promotes the public convenience and advantage;

(B) Whether or not the continuation of the outlet would promote the public interest; and

(C) Whether or not the outlet's business operation endangers the public health, welfare, or safety of the area or community in which it is located.

(2) It is specifically granted to the director and the board the power to review the outlet and its operation as if it were a new application, taking into consideration all factors involved in the review of an application as initially filed before the agency.

(d)(1) As to all violations occurring inside the permitted premises, the standard of proof shall be by substantial evidence.

(2) As to all violations occurring outside the permitted premises, the standard of proof shall be by clear and convincing evidence.

~~(d)~~(e) The Alcoholic Beverage Control Division and its board are hereby authorized to adopt regulations to implement each and every provision of this section.

~~(e)~~(f) The director and the board are empowered by this section to administer the full range of penalties available for other administrative proceedings before it, including, but not limited to, fines, suspension, cancellation, or revocation of such permits which have been found to endanger the public health, welfare, or safety.”
