Add Representatives Agee, Edwards, Matayo, Judy, Lendall and Norton as cosponsors of the bill

AND

Delete everything after the enacting clause and substitute:

"SECTION 1. This act shall be known as the "Arkansas Drug Court Act".

SECTION 2. Definitions.

For purposes of this act:

(1) "Drug court program" means an highly structured judicial intervention process for substance abuse treatment of eligible offenders which requires successful completion of the Drug Court Program treatment in lieu of incarceration; and

(2) "Drug court team" means a circuit judge, a prosecuting attorney, a defense attorney, and one (1) or more addiction counselors.

SECTION 3. Drug court programs authorized.

(a) Each judicial district of this state is authorized to establish a drug court program under this act, which may be preadjudication or postadjudication subject to availability of funds.

(b)(1) Drug court programs shall not be available to any defendant having a pending violent criminal charge against them.

(2) Eligible offenses may further be restricted by the rules of the specific drug court program.

(3) Nothing in this act shall require a drug court to consider or accept every offender with a treatable condition or addiction, regardless of the fact that the controlling offense is eligible for consideration in the program.

(4) Any offender who is determined not appropriate for the drug court program shall be prosecuted as provided by law.

(c)(1) Drug court programs may require a separate judicial processing system differing in practice and design from the traditional adversarial criminal prosecution and trial systems.

(2) A drug court team shall be designated consisting of a circuit judge to administer the program, a prosecuting attorney, a defense attorney, and one (1) or more addiction counselors who shall have appropriate understanding of the goals of the program and of the appropriate treatment methods for the various conditions and any other individual(s) determined necessary by the drug court judge.

(3) The administrative judge of the judicial district or an agreement of a majority of the circuit judges in the judicial district, shall designate one or more judges to administer the drug court program.

(d) All drug court programs shall be required to keep reliable data on recidivism, relapse, restarts, sanctions imposed, and incentives given.

(e) Each judicial district may develop a training and implementation manual for drug court programs with the assistance of the Department of Human Services, the Department of Education, the Department of Workforce Education, the Department of Correction, the Department of Community Correction, and the Administrative Office of the Courts.

SECTION 4. Cost and fees.

(a) The drug court judge may order the offender to pay court costs, treatment costs, drug testing costs, a program user fee not to exceed twenty dollars ($20.00) per month, and necessary supervision fees including any applicable residential treatment fees.

(b)(1) The drug court judge shall establish a schedule for the payment of costs and fees.

(2) The cost for treatment, drug testing, and supervision shall be set by the treatment and supervision providers respectively and made part of the drug court judge's order for payment.

(3) User fees shall be set by the drug court judge within the maximum amount authorized by this subsection and payable directly to the court clerk for the benefit and administration of the drug court program.

(4) Treatment, drug testing, and supervision costs shall be paid to the respective providers.

(5) The court clerk or the drug court judge's designee shall collect all other costs and fees ordered.

(6)(A) The remaining user fees shall be remitted to the Treasurer of State by the court clerk for deposit in the MAGNUM Drug Court Fund which is a special revenue fund created and established on the books of the Treasurer of State, Auditor of State, and Chief Fiscal Officer of the State.

(B) The MAGNUM Drug Court Fund shall consist of user fees and any other moneys provided by law.

(7) Court orders for costs and fees shall remain an obligation of the offender with court monitoring until fully paid.

SECTION 5. EMERGENCY CLAUSE. It is found and determined by the General Assembly of the State of Arkansas that there is serious overcrowding in Department of Correction facilities; that the overcrowding is likely to worsen if alternative sentencing measures are not enacted; and that this act is immediately necessary because it is designed to establish a procedure to help alleviate the overcrowding by offering sentencing alternates to person charged with certain drug offenses and should be given immediate effect. Therefore, an emergency is declared to exist and this act being necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health, and safety shall become effective on July 1, 2003."

AMENDMENT NO. 1 TO HOUSE BILL NO. 2603

Amend HOUSE BILL NO. 2603 as originally introduced:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and substitute the following:

“SECTION 1. (a)(1) In a divorce action maintained or being maintained in the courts of this state, after a court determination or court approval of a property settlement agreement establishing the party responsible for any joint credit card account debt, the non-responsible party may notify the issuer of the credit card of the court order by sending a written notice containing the account name and account number of the joint credit card accompanied by a certified copy of the court order and property settlement agreement, if any, by certified mail, return receipt requested to:

(A) The address which the issuer has designated for making payments on the credit card account; or

(B) The customer service address provided by the issuer.

(2) On the date the notice is processed by the issuer of the credit card, not later than the fourth business day after receipt of the notice by the issuer, the non-responsible party shall not be liable for any new charges on the credit card, other than charges made by the non-responsible party, but shall remain liable for the balance due prior to the date the issuer processes the notice, and all interest and late fees accrued or thereafter accruing on the balance.

(b)(1) The issuer of the credit card shall:

(A) Provide the non-responsible party with written notification of the credit card account balance as of the date of processing the notice;

(B) Remove the non-responsible party as an authorized user of the credit card account;

(C) Either:

(i) Cancel the credit card; or

(ii) Suspend the effectiveness of the credit card for a period not exceeding thirty (30) days to allow the issuer to evaluate any request by the responsible party to continue the account as a separate credit card account of the responsible party; and

(D) Apply all payment, made after date of processing the notice, first to any fees assessed against the account, next to the accrued interest, next to the principal of the debt existing on the date of processing the notice, and finally to the principal of any debt incurred after the date of the processing of the notice.

(c)(1) Nothing in this section prohibits the issuer of the credit card from issuing a new credit card to the responsible party.

(2) If as a result of receiving the notice under this section, a new credit card is issued in the name of the responsible party the issuer may:

(A) Transfer the outstanding debt to the new credit card account for which the responsible party is solely responsible; or

(B) Issue the new credit card with a zero balance and allow no new charges on the original credit card account, and both parties who are the obligors on the original credit card account will remain responsible for paying the debt from the original account in accordance with the terms and conditions of the original credit card account until the balance is paid in full.

(d) Proof that the non-responsible party notified the issuer of the credit card in compliance with this section shall be an affirmative defense to any action to recover card debt resulting from any charge on the account after the date of processing of the notice.”
