Re: Notice for Placement in the Senate Journal

Please let the Senate Journal reflect with placement of this letter that had I not been in service as the presiding officer and placed in a position of neutrality, I would have voted "yes" on House Bill 1115 which passed the Senate today. In my position of presiding officer in the absence of the President of the Senate, I voted present on the bill in accordance with accepted practice of the chair not voting unless such vote is needed to break a tie.
