Following is the procedure the Senate Rules Committee approved to recommend to the Senate on April 9, 2009, in regard to the election of the Senate President Pro Tempore Designee:

Immediately before recess of the 87th General Assembly, the Senate shall elect the Senate President Pro Tempore Designee for the 88th General Assembly.

The election shall be done by secret ballot with the following guidelines:

If a Senator is unable to be present for the election of the Senate President Pro Tempore Designee for the 88th General Assembly, that Senator shall submit his or her vote in a sealed envelope to the Secretary of the Senate.

The election can only be held when all members are present to vote by secret ballot and when the Secretary of the Senate has the absent member's sealed ballot in hand.

The body may give leave of a Senator who unexpectedly has to be absent.

Any member interested in running for the position of Senate President Pro Tempore Designee for the 88th General Assembly, needs to inform the Secretary of the Senate of his or her intention of running for the position no later than one day prior to the recess of the 87th General Assembly.

The Secretary of the Senate shall prepare ballots with the names of all Senators who informed the Secretary of the Senate of their intention to be a candidate for the position of Senate President Pro Tempore Designee for the 88th General Assembly.

Each candidate will draw for positions to speak to the body and will be allowed to speak for not over 2 minutes.

Each candidate shall designate a fellow Senator to be his or her counter of the ballots. The folded ballots will be handed out to all Senators by the Secretary of the Senate and collected by the Secretary of the Senate.

The ballots will be turned over to the Senate Rules Committee Vice-Chairman who will then give the ballots to the designated counters. The designated counters shall count the ballots in private, and upon agreement of the vote totals, shall shred all ballots.

If no Senator has a majority, a run-off will be required and a new ballot will be distributed to the members of Senate with the names of the Senators in the run-off. The folded ballots will be handed out to all Senators by the Secretary of the Senate and collected by the Secretary of the Senate.

The ballots will be turned over to the Senate Rules Committee Vice-Chairman who will then give the ballots to the designated counters. The designated counters shall count the ballots in private, and upon agreement of the vote totals, shall shred all ballots.

The counters then will appear before the body in the Senate Chamber and announce the winner of the election to the Senate.

The Senator receiving a majority vote of the Senate membership shall be elected the Senate President Pro Tempore Designee for the 88th General Assembly.

On motion of Senator Luker, the Senate resolved itself into the Committee of the Whole for the purpose of deliberating selection of President Pro Tem for the 88th General Assembly. Candidates are: Senator Bookout, Senator Salmon, Senator Whitaker. Senator Bookout elected.
