AND

Page 2, line 4, delete "a millage assessed" and substitute "an annual assessment under this section"

"(2)(A) The board of directors of a levee district may assess a tax on the real estate subject to overflow in the district in the amount of thirty cents (30¢) per acre or city lot.

(B) The board of directors of a levee district may assess a millage upon all improvements to real estate subject to overflow in the district in an amount not to exceed twenty (20) mills on the dollar of the assessed value as the property is assessed for state and county tax purposes.

(3) The millage assessed upon telephone, electrical light and power lines, and pipelines subject to overflow within the district shall not exceed twenty (20) mills on the dollar of twenty percent (20%) of the assessed valuation of the utility company based on calculations by the Arkansas Public Service Commission that are provided to the tax assessor in each county within the levee district."

"(d) The alternative assessments under this section shall be in lieu of assessments required by other laws under which the levee district is established and operates."

"14-126-103. Review of alternative assessment.

(a)(1) A person aggrieved by an alternative assessment under this chapter may petition to have the assessment reviewed by the board of directors.

(2) A petition for review shall be filed within thirty (30) days from the date when the assessment becomes effective.

(3) The board of directors may lower, raise, equalize, or determine the proper amount of benefit assessable against the property described in the petition.

(4) The amount and legality of an assessment made by a district, in the absence of a petition for a review, is conclusive.

(b)(1)(A) Within thirty (30) days of the conclusion of a review by the board of directors, an appeal may be filed with the county equalization board of the county in which the:

(i) Property is situated; or

(ii) District has its domicile if the property involved is in more than one (1) county.

(B) A copy of the appeal shall be delivered to the:

(i) President of the levee district; or

(ii) Chair of the board of directors of the levee district.

(2)(A) An appeal before the county equalization board shall be heard on the evidence introduced before the board of directors.

(B) Additional or different evidence shall not be admissible except on an issue of corrupt purpose or fraudulent action on the part of the board of directors resulting in a wrongful and discriminatory assessment.

(3) The right of review is part of the administrative remedy for relief from wrongful or erroneous assessments.

(4)(A) The county equalization board shall hear the petition as expeditiously as possible.

(B) The county equalization board may lower, raise, equalize, or determine the proper amount of benefit assessable against the property described in the appeal.

(C) As soon as the county equalization board determines the proper assessment under a petition pending before it, the county equalization board shall promptly certify the assessment to the district, and the district shall modify the assessment as necessary.

(c)(1)(A) Within thirty (30) days of the conclusion of an appeal to the county equalization board, an appeal may be filed with the circuit court of the county in which the:

(i) Property is situated; or

(ii) District has its domicile if the property involved is in more than one (1) county.

(B) A copy of the appeal to the circuit court shall be delivered to the:

(i) President of the levee district; or

(ii) Chair of the board of directors of the levee district.

(2)(A) Review shall be heard on the evidence introduced before the board of directors.

(B) Additional or different evidence shall not be admissible except on an issue of corrupt purpose or fraudulent action on the part of the board of directors resulting in a wrongful and discriminatory assessment.

(3) The right of review is part of the administrative remedy for relief from wrongful or erroneous assessments.

(4)(A) The circuit court shall hear the petition as expeditiously as possible.

(B) The circuit court may lower, raise, equalize, or determine the proper amount of benefit assessable against the property described in the appeal.

(5) As soon as the circuit court determines the proper assessment under a petition pending before it, the clerk of the circuit court shall promptly certify the assessment to the district, and the district shall modify the assessment as necessary.

(d)(1)(A) An appeal may be filed from the assessment fixed by the circuit court with the Supreme Court.

(B) The transcript shall be filed with the Clerk of the Supreme Court within sixty (60) days from the issuance of the decree of the circuit court.

(2) The Supreme Court shall advance the appeal on its docket as involving a matter of public interest.

SECTION 2. Arkansas Code Title 26, Chapter 27, Subchapter 3, is amended to add an additional section to read as follows:

26-27-323. Authority to hear certain appeals.

(a) In addition to its other duties, a county equalization board shall hear appeals under § 14-126-103.

(b) The board shall meet as necessary to hear appeals under § 14-126-103."

Upon motion of Representative Dale, HOUSE BILL NO. 1266 was placed back on second reading for the purpose of amendment.

AMENDMENT NO. 1 TO HOUSE BILL NO. 1266

Amend HOUSE BILL NO. 1266 as originally introduced:

Delete SECTION 1 in its entirety, and substitute the following:

"SECTION 1. Arkansas Code Title 26, Chapter 52, Subchapter 4, is amended to add an additional section to read as follows:

26-52-446. Construction materials.

(a) As used in this section:

(1) "Construction materials" means materials, supplies, and other tangible personal property purchased and consumed by:

(A) An exempt entity to construct, repair, or remodel a facility to be used by the exempt entity in the conduct of the exempt entity's regular functions and activities; or

(B) A contractor to directly fulfill a contract with an exempt entity to construct, repair, or remodel a facility to be used by the exempt entity in the conduct of the exempt entity's regular functions and activities; and

(2) "Exempt entity" means a regional water distribution district created under the Regional Water Distribution District Act, § 14-116-101 et seq.

(b) The gross receipts or gross proceeds derived from the sale of construction materials are exempt from the gross receipts tax levied by the Arkansas

Gross Receipts Act of 1941, § 26-52-101 et seq., and the compensating use tax levied by the Arkansas Compensating Tax Act of 1949, § 26-53-101 et seq.

(c) An exempt entity shall:

(1) Register each project that is eligible for an exemption under this section with the Department of Finance and Administration; and

(2) Obtain an exemption certificate from the department for the project.

(d)(1) A supplier shall provide to a contractor purchasing construction materials under this section an invoice bearing the name of the exempt entity and the project identification number.

(2) The contractor shall maintain invoices provided under this subsection for at least five (5) years.

(e)(1) Any excess resalable materials, supplies, or other tangible personal property that are purchased for a project by a contractor under an exemption certificate but are not incorporated into or consumed in the construction of the project shall be returned to the supplier for credit.

(2) If the contractor is not able to return the excess resalable materials, supplies, or other tangible personal property to the supplier for credit, the appropriate sales and use tax on the excess resalable materials, supplies, and other tangible personal property shall be reported on a return and paid by the contractor no later than the due date of the contractor's state sales and use tax return following the month in which it was determined that the excess resalable materials, supplies, or tangible personal property were not used in the project.

(f) The exempt entity may monitor all construction materials purchased, used, and consumed in fulfilling the construction project.

(g) This section does not exempt from sales and use tax the purchase of machinery, equipment, or tools used in fulfilling construction contracts.

(h)(1) If an entity obtains an exemption certificate for the purchase of materials, supplies, or other tangible personal property that are incorporated into or consumed in the entity's construction project and the entity is found not to be an exempt entity eligible for an exemption certificate under this section, the entity is liable for the sales and use tax owed on the materials, supplies, and other tangible personal property.

(2) If an exempt entity obtains an exemption certificate for the purchase of materials, supplies, and other tangible personal property that are incorporated into or consumed in the construction of a project or part of a project that is found not to be related to the exempt entity's functions and activities, the exempt entity is liable for the sales and use tax owed on the materials, supplies, and other tangible personal property.

(i) The Director of the Department of Finance and Administration may promulgate rules to implement this section."
