Representative Nickels called a Point of Order and was recognized by the Speaker.

Representative Nickels' Point of Order was that SENATE BILL NO. 2 was improperly before the House because the bill did not pass the Senate by the requisite number of votes.

Mr. Speaker stated he would take Representative Nickels' Point of Order under advisement and would refer it to the House Committee on RULES for consultation. Mr. Speaker invited the RULES Committee to meet at the proper time to take testimony on the Point of Order and to recommend a disposition for it.

The question presented to the House Rules Committee was "Did SENATE BILL NO. 2 pass the Senate with the requisite number of votes and is it, therefore, properly before the House?"
