Amendment No. 1 to SENATE BILL NO. 1024

Amend Senate Bill No. 1024 as originally introduced:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and substitute the following:

"SECTION 1. DO NOT CODIFY. The name of Arkansas Code Title 27, Chapter 50, Subchapter 12, is changed from "Removal of Unattended or Abandoned Vehicles" to "Removal or Immobilization of Unattended or Abandoned Vehicles". The Arkansas Code Revision Commission shall make all changes in the Arkansas Code necessary to implement this section.

SECTION 2. Arkansas Code § 27-50-1201(a), concerning applicability of Arkansas Code Title 27, Chapter 50, Subchapter 12, Removal of Unattended or Abandoned Vehicles, § 27-50-1201 et seq., is amended to read as follows:

(a) This subchapter applies to a person:

(1) Either:

(A) Engaged in the towing or storage of vehicles in the State of Arkansas; and

~~(2)(B)~~ Hired to tow or store the vehicle; or

(2) That performs vehicle immobilization service.

SECTION 3. Arkansas Code § 27-50-1202, concerning definitions under Arkansas Code Title 27, Chapter 50, Subchapter 12, Removal of Unattended or Abandoned Vehicles, § 27-50-1201 et seq., is amended to add additional subdivisions to read as follows:

(13) "Wheel clamp" means a device attached to a wheel of a vehicle that renders the vehicle immobile; and

(14) "Vehicle immobilization service" means a person operating or directing others to operate a wheel clamp.

SECTION 4. Arkansas Code § 27-50-1203(e)(1), concerning the authority of the Arkansas Towing and Recovery Board, is amended to read as follows:

(e)(1) The board shall promulgate rules and regulations to carry out the intent of this subchapter and shall regulate the towing industry and vehicle immobilization service industry, including:

(A) Establishing reasonable licensing, insurance, and equipment requirements for any person engaging in towing and related services for safety purposes or vehicle immobilization services under this subchapter;

(B) Establishing reasonable tow truck safety requirements for any tow vehicle as defined in this subchapter;

(C) Establishing a procedure to accept and investigate complaints from a consumer who claims that he or she has been overcharged for fees related to nonconsent towing, recovery, or storage fees, or vehicle immobilization services;

(D) Determining and sanctioning excessive or unnecessary ~~non-consent fees charged to consumers related to nonconsent towing fees, recovery, and storage, or vehicle immobilization services charged to consumers;~~

(E) Requiring all entities permitted, licensed, or regulated under this subchapter to provide to the board all documents in response to information requests by the board pursuant to the investigation of consumer complaints or board complaints against the permittee or licensee;

(F) Requiring all entities permitted, licensed, or regulated under this subchapter to provide itemized billing for fees related to towing or storage fees, or vehicle immobilization services that explains how the charges were calculated; and

(G) Requiring all entities permitted, licensed, or regulated under this subchapter to maintain a copy of their current maximum rate schedule or fee schedule posted in a conspicuous place and readily accessible to the public.

SECTION 5. Arkansas Code § 27-50-1203(f) and (g), concerning the authority of the Arkansas Towing and Recovery Board, are amended to read as follows:

(f)(1)(A) The board shall have the authority to levy applicable towing business license and vehicle immobilization service license fees not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100) per license, and the board shall have the authority to levy an applicable tow vehicle safety permit fee not to exceed fifty dollars ($50.00) per tow vehicle safety permit.

(B) A person licensed by the board to perform towing services is authorized to perform vehicle immobilization services without obtaining a separate vehicle immobilization service license.

(2) ~~Furthermore, the~~ The board shall also have the authority to impose late filing fees in addition to the original filing fees in an amount not to exceed the original amount of the license fee or safety permit fee.

(g)(1) The board shall have the authority to employ and discharge any personnel as may be necessary to administer and enforce the provisions of this subchapter and the rules and regulations promulgated hereunder.

(2) The board shall employ investigators to investigate consumer complaints related to overcharging for nonconsent towing, recovery, ~~or storage fees,~~ fees associated with the use of wheel clamps, violations of § 27-50-1101, this subchapter, and violations of the rules promulgated by the board under this subchapter."

"SECTION 1. TEMPORARY LANGUAGE. DO NOT CODIFY.

(a) The General Assembly finds that:

(1) The children of Arkansas are our future and will provide leadership, creativity, and productivity to strengthen and sustain the quality of life in our communities;

(2) ASCD, founded as the Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development, launched the Whole Child Initiative in 2007 and has since been joined by seventy (70) leading education, health, arts, and civic organizations to advance the Whole Child Initiative;

(3) The Eighty-Seventh Arkansas General Assembly unanimously passed a joint resolution in support of the Arkansas Association of Supervision and Curriculum Development Whole Child Initiative to ensure that all Arkansas children are safe, healthy, engaged, supported, and intellectually stimulated;

(4) Each Arkansas community should ensure that our children have comprehensive community support to realize their whole potential to experience the fullness of life through high-quality access to the following tenets:

(A) Healthy options;

(B) Safety;

(C) Active engagement;

(D) Adult support; and

(E) An intellectually stimulating environment; and

(5) Whole Child communities should be recognized and applauded for their work to engage the entire community in support of the whole child.

(b) The purpose of the Whole Child - Whole Community Initiative is to:

(1) Track how well educators, parents, other community members, and state and local policy makers are meeting the comprehensive needs of Arkansas children at each stage of a child's development from birth to postsecondary education or career;

(2) Provide a fuller picture of the well-being of Arkansas children that extends well beyond test scores, school and school district labels, graduation rates, and other stand-alone descriptions; and

(3) Help create pathways and opportunities to spur cooperation, collaboration, and coordination within and beyond schoolhouse doors and promote a shift from the narrowly defined student achievement and traditional education reform to broader, more comprehensive efforts that recognize:

(A) Crucial out-of-school factors that influence teaching and learning;

and

(B) Arkansas's progress in supporting the full potential of its students with a whole-child approach.

(c) There is established a Whole Child - Whole Community Recognition Working Group to create a framework for recognizing community and state efforts to ensure all children receive comprehensive support of the whole community by highlighting the work of:

- (1) Educators;
- (2) Parents and community members; and
- (3) Policymakers, elected and appointed.

(d) The working group shall consist of:

- (1) Two (2) parents appointed by the Arkansas Parent Teacher Association;
- (2) Two (2) persons appointed by the President of the Arkansas Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development;
- (3) Two (2) educators appointed by the Arkansas Education Association;
- (4) Two (2) educators appointed by the Arkansas Association of Educational Administrators;
- (5) One (1) person representing early childhood education appointed by the Director of the Department of Human Services;
- (6) Two (2) members who are directors of two (2) different school districts appointed by the Arkansas School Boards Association;
- (7) Two (2) persons representing charitable foundations:
 - (A) One (1) who is appointed by the chair of the Senate Committee on Education; and
 - (B) One (1) who is appointed by the chair of the House Committee on Education;
- (8) Two (2) persons representing grassroots advocacy groups:
 - (A) One (1) who is appointed by the chair of the Senate Committee on Education; and
 - (B) One (1) who is appointed by the chair of the House Committee on Education;
- (9) Two (2) persons who are city or county policy-makers appointed by the Arkansas Municipal League;
- (10) Two (2) members of the Arkansas General Assembly:
 - (A) One (1) who is appointed by the chair of the Senate Committee on Education; and
 - (B) One (1) who is appointed by the chair of the House Committee on Education;
- (11) The President of the Arkansas State Chamber of Commerce, or his or her designee;
- (12) The President of the Arkansas American Federation of Labor and Congress of Industrial Organizations, or his or her designee;
- (13) The Commissioner of Education, or his or her designee;
- (14) The Director of the Department of Higher Education, or his or her designee; and
- (15) The Director of the Arkansas Economic Development Commission, or his or her designee.

(e) State agencies shall provide assistance or as ex-officio members for the working group upon the working group's request or upon the request of the state agency, including without limitation:

- (1) Department of Rural Services;
- (2) Arkansas Planning and Development Districts;
- (3) Department of Health;
- (4) Local law enforcement agencies;
- (5) Department of Arkansas State Police;
- (6) The University of Arkansas for Medical Sciences School of Public Health;
- (7) Department of Parks and Tourism; and
- (8) Arkansas State Game and Fish Commission.

(f)(1) By September 1, 2013, the Commissioner of Education, or his or her designee, shall call the first meeting of the working group.

(2) At the first meeting, the working group shall elect a chair by majority vote.

(3) All changes in working group chairmanship shall be decided by majority vote of the working group.

(g)(1) The working group shall meet at the times that the chair deems necessary but not less than four (4) times per year.

(B) All meetings shall take place in Little Rock unless the working group votes to select another city.

(2) A simple majority of the working group shall constitute a quorum for the purpose of transacting business.

(3) All actions of the working group are by quorum.

(h) The Bureau of Legislative Research shall staff the working group.

(i) All members of the working group may receive expense reimbursement as provided under § 25-16-902 to be paid by the Department of Education if funds are available.

(j)(1) The working group shall recommend to the Ninetieth Arkansas General Assembly a process and procedures for application, evaluation, and recognition of exemplary Whole Child - Whole Community successes.

(2) The process and procedures may allow for:

(A) Solicitation of communities to participate in the Whole Child - Whole Community initiative, but participation by a community is voluntary; and

(B) An individual citizen of Arkansas to nominate a community for recognition.

(k) In developing its recommendations, the working group shall consider the following indicators for educators, parents, community members, and legislators in each of the five (5) tenets:

(1)(A) Each student enters school healthy and learns about and practices a healthy lifestyle.

(B) Under this tenet of healthy options, the indicators are that:

(i) Educators:

(a) Establish a school health advisory council with students, family, community, and business members;

(b) Provide elementary and middle school students with a daily recess that is at least twenty (20) minutes in duration;

(c) Provide quality instruction in health and physical education that addresses the physical, mental, emotional, and social dimensions of health as well as lifetime fitness knowledge, attitudes, behaviors, and skills;

(d) Facilitate students' access to health, mental health, and dental services;

(e) Reinforce healthy eating patterns by offering students nutritious and fresh food choices as part of both routine food services, and special programming and events;

(f) Offer opportunities for elementary, middle, and high school students of all abilities to participate in a wide variety of intramural and extracurricular activities that provide them with positive physical, social, and emotional experiences; and

(g) Integrate movement into lessons and across the school day;

(ii) Parents and community members:

(a) Ensure that children receive immunizations and are routinely screened for vision, hearing, dental, speech, and orthopedic concerns.

(b) Take children to preventive medical and dental care visits on a regular basis;

(c) Ensure that school-age children accumulate at least sixty (60) minutes of age-appropriate physical activity every day;

(d) Expose children to a variety of sports and physical activity experiences offered through the school and community;

(e) Maintain and promote the communities' sports and recreation programming, green spaces, community gardens, and farmers markets, ensuring that underserved families in the community have access to them;

(f) Encourage walking or biking to and from school; and

(g) Collaborate with schools to ensure free and low-cost community health services are offered to the students and families who need them; and

(iii) Policy-makers:

(a) Support school-based health clinics, particularly in underserved areas, that provide necessary and convenient health services to students, their families, and the community;

(b) Promote a well-rounded curriculum that includes physical and health education as part of the core academics that every student should master before they graduate;

(c) Facilitate connections between schools and community-based health services, beginning with collaboration between the Department of Education and the Department of Health; and

(d) Support community health initiatives, resources, and programming that help to instill healthy habits in children and families;

(2)(A) Each student learns in an environment that is physically and emotionally safe for students and adults.

(B) Under this tenet of safety, the indicators are that:

(i) Educators:

(a) Model and provide opportunities for students to practice social-emotional skills, including effective listening, conflict resolution, problem solving, personal reflection and responsibility, respect for individual differences, and ethical decision making;

(b) Consistently reinforce school and classroom expectations, rules, and routines and work with families to teach students how to manage their own behavior;

(c) Establish a classroom and school climate where everyone feels safe and that is conducive to teaching and learning;

(d) Establish a bullying-prevention program and reporting system and promote these anti-bullying efforts among students, staff, families, and community members;

(e) Get to know students and connect students to necessary community services when they are struggling with substance abuse, homelessness, or family violence; and

(f) Establish a positive school climate that is friendly and student-centered, ensuring that students and staff feel valued, respected, cared for, and motivated to learn;

(ii) Parents and community members:

(a) Work within the community to provide children with safe transportation to and from school, including chaperoning bus stops and establishing safe walking routes;

(b) Know Arkansas's anti-bullying law and the school's anti-bullying and anti-harassment policies, including how to report bullying incidents;

(c) Monitor children's use of social networking sites and establish appropriate security settings on a family's computers and other electronic devices;

(d) Encourage school and community organizations to provide safe, chaperoned activities for students before and after school; and

(e) Collaborate with homeowners' associations, neighborhood watches, municipal services, park authorities, faith-based institutions and other community organizations to ensure neighborhoods, parks, and other public spaces are clean, well-lit, and well-maintained;

(iii) Policy-makers:

(a) Establish anti-bullying legislation that specifically defines incidents of intimidation, bullying, and harassment and requires schools to develop anti-bullying policies;

(b) Establish social-emotional learning and character development programs;

(c) Support before- and after-school programming that provides students with safe places to extend their learning and to interact with peers; and

(d) Facilitate connections between schools and community-based recreational offerings and social services;

(3)(A) Each student is actively engaged in learning and is connected to the school and broader community.

(B) Under this tenet of active engagement, the indicators are that:

(i) Educators:

(a) Develop student-centered academic plans and a process for students to provide input on these plans throughout their academic careers;

(b) Use active learning strategies, such as cooperative learning and project-based learning;

(c) Include students in schoolwide decision making and governance;

(d) Offer students academic credit for hands-on, community-based learning opportunities and provide flexible scheduling that allows students to participate in these opportunities during the school day;

(e) Partner with the community to offer students a full complement of extracurricular, cocurricular, and after-school activities as well as service-learning opportunities that incorporate community experiences and reflect students' interests and goals;

(f) Allow time and space for student discussions; and

(g) Promote the development of student-led initiatives;

(ii) Parents and community members:

(a) Limit television viewing and video game use to no more than two hours per day, instead encouraging children to participate in extracurricular activities or volunteer experiences in which they are interested;

(b) Ask children's teachers and principals what they do to make classroom learning relevant and engaging for students;

(c) Ensure that children attend school regularly, and ask what they learned or did each day, such as the best thing, funniest moment, new activity;

(d) Collaborate with schools, neighborhoods, homeowners' associations, businesses, and other community institutions to provide students with experiential learning opportunities, such as service learning, internships, and apprenticeships with local businesses; and

(e) Provide children with age-appropriate decision making opportunities at home and increase children's household responsibilities; and

(iii) Policy-makers:

(a) Require schools, school districts, and communities to measure and report activities and outcomes related to student and family engagement, such as volunteer rates, parent-involvement data, and participation in after-school programming, community-based learning opportunities, and extracurricular activities; and

(b) Recognize and reward schools and communities that offer students rich and relevant real-world learning experiences;

(4)(A) Each student has access to personalized learning and is supported by qualified, caring adults.

(B) Under this tenet of adult support, the indicators are that:

(i) Educators:

(a) Make sure each student is well-known by at least one (1) adult in the school, such as an advisor or mentor;

(b) Provide each student with access to school counselors, social workers, and structured academic, social, and emotional support systems;

(c) Personalize learning, including the flexible use of time and scheduling to meet academic and social goals for each student;

(d) Welcome and include all families as partners in their children's education, helping them to understand available services, advocate for their children's needs, and support their children's learning; and

(e) Participate in ongoing, relevant professional development that enhances the educator's ability to deliver differentiated instruction that meets students' varying academic and social-emotional needs;

(ii) Parents and community members:

(a) Talk with children for at least fifteen (15) minutes each day, communicating openly and encouraging them to share their successes, thoughts, and concerns;

(b) Partner with children's school to support children's academic goals and to give extra help where needed;

(c) Attend parent-teacher conferences and volunteer at the school;

(d) Monitor children's performance over time and take an active role in their progress; and

(e) Get to know children's teachers, coaches, and other adult mentors and collaborate with them on shared goals for each child; and

(iii) Policy-makers:

(a) Require schools to provide adequate counseling and support services to students, ensuring that every school meets the recommended ratio of at least one (1) counselor for every two hundred fifty (250) students;

(b) Support parent education and family literacy programs;

(c) Require educator evaluation systems to drive opportunities for individualized professional growth and support schools in providing relevant and quality training to teachers during the school day;

(d) Align assessment requirements to maximize the impact on instruction;

(e) Provide multiple pathways to graduation; and
(f) Require schools to develop individualized learning plans for each student that connect to their academic and career goals and interests;

(5)(A) Each student is intellectually stimulated and prepared for success in college or further study and for employment and participation in a global environment.

(B) Under this tenet of intellectually stimulating environment, the indicators are that:

(i) Educators:

(a) Provide relevant and challenging coursework in a wide array of subjects through a variety of pathways, such as Advanced Placement, International Baccalaureate, dual-enrollment programs, and early college programs, and offer these advanced courses to all interested students;

(b) Develop each student's critical-thinking and reasoning skills, creativity, ability to collaborate, problem-solving competencies, global awareness, and technology proficiency;

(c) Provide a well-rounded curriculum that prepares students for success in college, career, and citizenship through rigorous instruction in all core academic subjects, including reading, math, science, the arts, history, civics, government, economics, foreign languages, geography, health education, and physical education;

(d) Use qualitative and quantitative data and a range of diagnostic, formative, and summative assessments to monitor student progress, provide timely feedback, and adjust teaching and learning activities to maximize student growth; and

(e) Align high school graduation requirements with the knowledge and skills required for college and career success;

(ii) Parents and community members:

(a) Communicate regularly with children and their teachers to identify opportunities to extend their learning in areas of interest and to support growth in the areas that are challenging;

(b) Talk with children about their career interests and goals and explore courses, extracurricular activities, and postsecondary education options that align with those interests and goals;

(c) Partner with schools to ensure their curricula, instruction, education experiences, and extracurricular activities prepare students with the knowledge and skills they need for success in the workplace and in further education; and

(d) Reinforce the importance of education for future social, economic, and civic success; and

(iii) Policy-makers:

(a) Provide relevant and challenging coursework in a wide array of subjects through a variety of pathways (e.g., Advanced Placement, International Baccalaureate, dual-enrollment programs, early college programs), and offer these advanced courses to all interested students;

(b) Recognize and reward schools that are successful in helping students of all backgrounds master challenging coursework;

(c) Hold schools accountable for student achievement using multiple measures of performance and growth across all core academic subjects and establish meaningful and transparent public reporting of this information;

(d) Foster coordination and communication across early childhood education, elementary education, middle school, high school, and postsecondary education so that each stage of a student's educational career prepares him or her for the next; and

(e) Promote alternative ways of assessing progress and achievement, such as portfolios and presentations.

(l) By November 1, 2014, the Whole Child - Whole Community Recognition Working Group shall file its report with the House Committee on Education, Senate Committee on Education, and Legislative Council."

- (E) Itemization of revenues and expenditures.

SECTION 4. Arkansas Code § 14-90-602 is amended to read as follows:
14-90-602. Revision of assessments.

(a)(1) The commissioners of ~~any a~~ municipal improvement district may require the assessors thereof to revise their assessment ~~not more often than~~ only once one (1) time per annum, increasing or diminishing the assessment against particular pieces of property as justice may require.

(2) However, the total amount of benefits shall ~~never~~ not be diminished if the district ~~shall have~~ borrowed money or incurred indebtedness.

(b)(1)(A) The reassessment shall be filed with the city clerk or town clerk.

(B) Before the filing of the reassessment with the city or town clerk under this section, the requirements of this section, § 14-88-505, and other applicable law shall be met.

(C) The filing under this subdivision shall include without limitation:

(i) Minutes of the meeting in which action was taken by the board concerning a reassessment under this section;

(ii) Affidavit of compliance with notification requirements; and

(iii) A detailed plan for use of the reassessment moneys and a proposed budget for implementation.

(2)(A) On the filing of a reassessment with the city clerk or town clerk, the city clerk or town clerk shall publish in ~~some a~~ newspaper published in the county one (1) time a week for two (2) weeks a notice as follows:

“The reassessment of Improvement District No..... (giving the style and number of the district) has been filed in my office, and the same is now open for inspection.

All persons wishing to be heard on the reassessment shall be heard by the commissioners of the district in the office of the city clerk or town clerk at _____ on the _____ day of _____, 2_____.

Clerk of the City (or Town) of

(B) The notice shall be mailed by the district to all record owners of property in the district on the date of the first publication, and an affidavit of mailing shall be filed with the city clerk or town clerk at least six (6) days before the hearing date.

(C) The notice shall be posted prominently and continuously in the district at least thirty (30) days before the hearing date.

(3) On the day named by the notice, the commissioners of the district shall meet at the place named, hear all matters raised concerning the assessment, and adjust the assessment if necessary.

(c)(1) ~~Where~~ When assessments of benefits are revised in ~~pursuance of this section,~~ and notice is given as provided in this section, the assessments shall be final and conclusive if approved by the governing body of the city or town and unless suit is brought in the chancery circuit court within thirty (30) days after the publication of the notice provided for in subsection (b) of this section action is taken by the governing body for the purpose of correcting the assessment.

(2) Notice shall be given by the district to all record owners of property in the district at least ten (10) days prior to the meeting date of the governing body of the city or town during which the ordinance on the assessment will be considered.

SECTION 5. Arkansas Code § 14-90-701 is amended to read as follows:
14-90-701. Insufficient tax to complete improvement.

(a) If the tax first levied ~~shall prove~~ is insufficient to complete or pay for a municipal improvement ~~or pay therefor~~, the board of improvement shall report the amount of the deficiency to the ~~council~~ governing body of the municipality, and it shall ~~thereupon~~ make a determination on whether or not to levy further taxes based on the assessment of benefits for a sum sufficient to complete or pay for the improvement ~~or pay therefor~~, which shall be collected in the same manner as the first levy.

(b) However, the taxes levied shall ~~never~~ not exceed the total amount of the benefits assessed or the limitation of cost fixed in the petition or by this act."
