Subtitle

AN AMENDMENT TO THE ARKANSAS CONSTITUTION
TO PROHIBIT SLAVERY AND INVOLUNTARY SERVITUDE.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE NINETY-SECOND GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ARKANSAS, AND BY THE SENATE, A MAJORITY OF ALL MEMBERS ELECTED TO EACH HOUSE AGREEING THERETO:

That the following is proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Arkansas, and upon being submitted to the electors of the state for approval or rejection at the next general election for Representatives and Senators, if a majority of the electors voting thereon at the election adopt the amendment, the amendment shall become a part of the Constitution of the State of Arkansas, to wit:

SECTION 1. Intent of amendment.

(a) Arkansas Constitution, Article 2, § 27, permits slavery and involuntary servitude as a punishment for crime.

(b) As the Arkansas Constitution is the moral and legal foundation of our state, abolishing all forms of slavery in the Arkansas Constitution represents the fundamental values held by the citizens of Arkansas.

(c) Because persons of color are overrepresented in the prison system, continued slave labor is an issue of racial and economic injustice.

(d) Arkansas is one of only two (2) states that do not pay inmates anything for their labor.

(e) If a prisoner is working, they should be compensated for that labor so they can afford the basic necessities of life.

(f) The intent of this amendment is to repeal the portion of Arkansas Constitution, Article 2, § 27, allowing slavery and involuntary servitude as a punishment for crime to fully abolish slavery in the State of Arkansas and recognize the moral and economic benefits that will result from ending this practice.

SECTION 2. Arkansas Constitution, Article 2, § 27, is amended to read as follows:

§ 27. Slavery – Standing armies – Military subordinate to civil power.

There shall be no slavery in this State, nor involuntary servitude, ~~except as a punishment for crime.~~ No standing army shall be kept in time of peace; the military shall, at all times, be in strict subordination to the civil power; and no soldier shall be quartered in any house, or on any premises, without the consent of the owner, in time of peace; nor in time of war, except in a manner prescribed by law.

SECTION 3. EFFECTIVE DATE. This amendment shall be effective on and after January 1, 2021.

SECTION 4. BALLOT TITLE AND POPULAR NAME. When this proposed amendment is submitted to the electors of this state on the general election ballot:

(1) The title of this Joint Resolution shall be the ballot title; and

(2) The popular name shall be "A Constitutional Amendment to Prohibit Slavery and Involuntary Servitude".
