SECTION 1. Arkansas Code Title 17 is amended to add an additional chapter to read as follows:

CHAPTER 2

FRESH START ACT OF 2019

17-2-101. Title.

This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the "Fresh Start Act of 2019".

17-2-102. Purpose.

The purpose of this chapter is to help individuals with criminal records reenter and move to the workforce and stay out of prison.

17-2-103. Definitions.

As used in this chapter:

(1) "Criminal record" means any type of felony or misdemeanor conviction;

(2) "Licensing entity" means an office, board, commission, department, council, bureau, or other agency of state government having authority to license, certify, register, permit, or otherwise authorize an individual to engage in a particular occupation or profession; and

(3) "Licensure" means a license, certificate, registration, permit, or other form of authorization required by law or rule that is required for an individual to engage in a particular occupation or profession.

17-2-104. Anti-discrimination.

An individual shall not be disqualified from pursuing, practicing, or engaging in any occupation or profession for which licensure is required solely or in part because of a prior conviction of a crime, unless the crime for which the individual was convicted directly relates to the duties and responsibilities of the occupation or profession.

17-2-105. Required revision of licensing restrictions based on criminal records.

(a)(1) On or before one hundred twenty (120) days of the effective date of this chapter, a licensing entity shall revise existing rules concerning licensure to explicitly list the specific criminal convictions that could disqualify an applicant from receiving licensure for a particular occupation or profession.

(2) A licensing entity shall not, as a basis upon which licensure may be granted or in any rule that the licensing entity promulgates:

(A) Use vague or generic terms, including without limitation the phrase "moral turpitude" and "good character"; or

(B) Consider arrests without a subsequent conviction.

(3) In its rulemaking, a licensing entity shall list only disqualifying criminal records that are specific and directly related to the duties and responsibilities for the occupation or profession.

(b)(1) A licensing entity shall use the preponderance of the evidence standard of proof in examining the factors to determine whether an applicant with a disqualifying criminal conviction will be denied licensure.

(2) A licensing entity shall make a determination under subdivision (b)(1) of this section based on the following factors:

(A) The nature and seriousness of the offense for which the individual was convicted;

(B) The passage of time since the commission of the offense;

(C) The relationship of the offense to the ability, capacity, and fitness required to perform the duties and discharge the responsibilities of the occupation or profession; and

(D) Any evidence of rehabilitation or treatment undertaken by the individual that might mitigate against a direct relationship between an element of the offense for which an applicant was convicted and a responsibility inherent to the particular occupation or profession.

(c)(1) Notwithstanding any other law, if an individual has a valid criminal conviction for an offense that could disqualify the individual from receiving licensure, the disqualification shall not be considered for more than five (5) years from the date of the conviction if the individual:

(A) Was not convicted of an offense that was violent or sexual in the nature offense;

(B) Was not convicted more than one (1) time for any felony offense and does not have a background that gives reason to believe that he or she might pose a grave, serious, or substantial risk concerning public safety that gives cause for denying licensure; or

(C) Has not been convicted of any other offense during the five-year disqualification period.

(2)(A) The potential disqualification period may last longer if an applicant with a disqualifying criminal conviction was incarcerated for an offense that was not violent or sexual in nature at any time during the previous five (5) years.

(B) If the disqualification period lasts longer than the period specified under subdivision (c)(2)(A) of this section, the disqualification shall last no longer than five (5) years from the date that the individual was released from incarceration.

(d) Subsections (a), (b), and (c) shall apply to any new occupational licensure created after the effective date of this chapter.

17-2-106. Petition for review of licensing entity decisions.

(a)(1) An individual with a criminal record may petition a licensing entity at any time for a determination of whether the criminal record of the individual will disqualify the individual from licensure.

(2) The petition shall include details on the criminal record of the individual.

(3) The licensing entity shall inform the individual of his or her standing within thirty (30) days of receiving the petition from the applicant.

(4) The licensing entity may charge a fee to recoup costs associated with the petition not to exceed twenty-five dollars ($25.00) for each petition.

(b) If a licensing entity denies an individual licensure solely or in part because of a prior conviction of an offense by the individual, the licensing entity shall notify the individual in writing of the following:

(1) The grounds and reasons for the denial or disqualification;

(2) The rights of the individual to a hearing to challenge the decision of the licensing entity;

(3) The earliest date that the individual may reapply for licensure; and

(4) The fact that evidence of rehabilitation may be considered upon reapplication.

(c) A licensing entity shall document a determination that a criminal conviction of an applicant is specifically listed as a disqualifying conviction and is directly related to the duties and responsibilities of the occupation or profession in written findings for each of the factors listed in § 17-2-105(b) by a preponderance of the evidence sufficient for a reviewing court.

(d) In an administrative hearing or civil litigation, the licensing entity shall carry the burden of proof regarding whether the criminal conviction directly relates to the occupation or profession for which licensure is sought.

17-2-107. Construction.

This chapter applies to all occupations or professions except for peace officers and other law enforcement personnel.

17-2-108. Rules.

SECTION 177. EMERGENCY CLAUSE. It is found and determined by the General Assembly of the State of Arkansas that there is a shortage of certain occupations or professions in certain parts of the State of Arkansas; that individuals with criminal records cannot obtain licenses in certain occupations or professions despite the shortages; that the inability of individuals with criminal records to obtain licenses is increasing recidivism in the State of Arkansas; that this act requires that the licensing entities make certain administrative rules requiring licenses that would impact individuals with criminal records; and that this act is immediately necessary to ensure that individuals have certainty that they will be able to obtain licenses before entering occupational programs or schools in the fall of this year, to decrease the shortages of certain occupations or professions, to reduce recidivism in the State of Arkansas, and to allow licensing entities to make administrative rules at the earliest possible date to ensure certainty in the requirements of licenses. Therefore, an emergency is declared to exist, and this act being immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health, and safety shall become effective on:

(1) The date of its approval by the Governor;

(2) If the bill is neither approved nor vetoed by the Governor, the expiration of the period of time during which the Governor may veto the bill; or

(3) If the bill is vetoed by the Governor and the veto is overridden, the date the last house overrides the veto.
