HOUSE RESOLUTION

TO COMMEND THE JOHN BROWN UNIVERSITY CONSTRUCTION
MANAGEMENT TEAM FOR WINNING THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF CONSTRUCTORS COLLEGIATE ETHICS COMPETITION.

Subtitle

TO COMMEND THE JOHN BROWN UNIVERSITY
CONSTRUCTION MANAGEMENT TEAM FOR WINNING
THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF CONSTRUCTORS
COLLEGIATE ETHICS COMPETITION.

WHEREAS, the American Institute of Constructors held its annual Collegiate Ethics Competition on March 23, 2021, as a virtual competition; and

WHEREAS, the John Brown University construction management team participated in the competition and took the first-place spot after defeating the other finalist teams from Texas A&M University and the University of North Florida; and

WHEREAS, the team members include Elijah Bolyard, John Flaugh, Andrew Guresky, and Luke Gumm; and

WHEREAS, the win marks the fifth year in a row that the construction management team at John Brown University has won the competition, with this year's team presenting to a panel of industry leaders from around the country on various ethical and industry concerns based on a case study created out of actual industry events; and

WHEREAS, the competition is open to all accredited schools of construction management in the United States,

NOW THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE NINETY-THIRD GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ARKANSAS:

THAT the House of Representatives congratulate and commend the John Brown University construction management team for winning the American Institute of Constructors Collegiate Ethics Competition.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED THAT upon adoption, a copy of this resolution be provided to the President of John Brown University by the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives.
