(c) Annual or special shareholders' meetings may be held by corporations or banks solely or partially through remote communication if authorized by the corporation's or bank's board of directors.

SECTION 6. EMERGENCY CLAUSE. It is found and determined by the General Assembly of the State of Arkansas that the risk of exposure to coronavirus 2019 (COVID-19) or to severe acute respiratory syndrome coronavirus 2 (SARS-CoV-2) or any of its mutations is causing delays in conducting business due to the inability to hold in-person shareholders' meetings; that allowing Arkansas corporations and banks to conduct shareholders' meetings through remote communication, solely or partially, can reduce the uncertainty for Arkansas corporations and banks and allow a corporation or bank to continue to operate; and that this act is immediately necessary to provide Arkansas corporations and banks with the ability to conduct their corporate affairs without risk of exposure to coronavirus 2019 (COVID-19) or to severe acute respiratory syndrome coronavirus 2 (SARS-CoV-2) or any of its mutations. Therefore, an emergency is declared to exist, and this act being immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health, and safety shall become effective on:

(1) The date of its approval by the Governor;

(2) If the bill is neither approved nor vetoed by the Governor, the expiration of the period of time during which the Governor may veto the bill; or

(3) If the bill is vetoed by the Governor and the veto is overridden, the date the last house overrides the veto.
