SENATE RESOLUTION

TO COMMEND L.C. "BUCKSHOT" SMITH ON HIS LONG TENURE
AS A CAMDEN POLICE OFFICER.

Subtitle

TO COMMEND L.C. "BUCKSHOT" SMITH ON HIS LONG TENURE AS A CAMDEN POLICE OFFICER.

WHEREAS, L.C. "Buckshot" Smith of Camden, Arkansas, is the oldest police officer in the state and is one (1) of the oldest police officers in the country; and

WHEREAS, Buckshot became a sheriff's deputy fifty-six (56) years ago and was a deputy for forty-six (46) years before retiring for a few short months – he realized very quickly how much he enjoyed the work and subsequently joined the Camden Police Department, where he has served ever since; and

WHEREAS, Buckshot loves the excitement of being a police officer, and though he is ninety-two (92) years of age this year, he has no plans to retire; and

WHEREAS, Buckshot is beloved throughout Camden, serving during annual festivals, in the courthouse, at his church, and for his neighborhood watch; and

WHEREAS, his dedication, his work ethic, and his friendliness have made him a cherished member of the Camden Police Department,

NOW THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE NINETY-THIRD GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ARKANSAS:

THAT the Senate commend L.C. "Buckshot" Smith on his dedication and service to the Camden Police Department.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED THAT upon adoption, a copy of this resolution be provided to Mr. Smith by the Secretary of the Senate.
