SECTION 28. EMERGENCY CLAUSE. It is found and determined by the General Assembly of the State of Arkansas that the positions to which the Governor makes appointments are important and necessary to the functions of the government of the State of Arkansas; with a change in the administration of the government of the State of Arkansas due to a new Governor taking office on January 10, 2023, there are many vacancies on boards and commissions in the state to be filled by the Governor's appointees; it is imperative that the Senate consider confirmation of the appointments near in time to when the appointments occur, whether that be during a legislative session or the interim between legislative sessions, in order to avoid continued vacancies; and that this act is immediately necessary to provide for the expeditious review and confirmation of gubernatorial appointments in order to fill the positions that are necessary to the functioning of state government and the protection of the public health, welfare, and safety of the citizens of the State of Arkansas. Therefore, an emergency is declared to exist, and this act being immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health, and safety shall become effective on:

- (1) The date of its approval by the Governor;
- (2) If the bill is neither approved nor vetoed by the Governor, the expiration of the period of time during which the Governor may veto the bill; or
- (3) If the bill is vetoed by the Governor and the veto is overridden, the date the last house overrides the veto.
