YEARS OF SERVICE.

Subtitle

TO RECOGNIZE DELTA COMPANIES INC. AND ITS
ONE HUNDRED YEARS OF SERVICE

WHEREAS, in April of 1923, Edward Regenhardt, and his sons, William and Ted, incorporated as the Regenhardt Construction Company to construct roads and other concrete construction projects in Missouri, Illinois, and Kentucky; and

WHEREAS, in the 1960's, Delta Companies Inc. converted from a predominately concrete construction company into the vertically integrated company it is today, and has become a highway and site development contractor specializing in asphalt paving and road construction materials, including aggregates, asphalt paving materials, and asphalt emulsions; and

WHEREAS, the company expanded into Arkansas in 1972 with asphalt plants and road construction operations; and

WHEREAS, a member of the Regenhardt family has been involved in the management of Delta Companies Inc. until 2000, when Joe Regenhardt, grandson of Edward Regenhardt, retired from the company; and

WHEREAS, Delta Companies Inc. demonstrates a strong commitment to its employees and the communities it serves by providing training, education, tours, and classroom presentations, and by being a proud member of various industry associations, including the Associated General Contractors of Arkansas and the Arkansas Asphalt Pavement Association; and

WHEREAS, Delta Companies Inc. possesses the experience, expertise, and longevity to carry forward throughout the twenty-first century, and by combining strong project management with a skilled and talented workforce, the latest technology, and state-of-the-art construction methods, has established a reputation for safely completing projects to specification while meeting time and budget constraints; and

WHEREAS, leaders throughout Delta Companies Inc. consistently demonstrate their intentions with actions to positively influence the attitudes, beliefs, and ideas of their employees and co-workers with the goal of eliminating at-risk behaviors; and the slogan of Delta Companies Inc. is "Safety/Our Way of Life", and it is truly becoming so,

NOW THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE NINETY-FOURTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ARKANSAS:

THAT the Senate extend its most sincere congratulations to the dedicated men and women of Delta Companies Inc. on the illustrious occasion of its one-hundredth anniversary.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED THAT, upon adoption, a copy of this resolution shall be provided to Mr. Zach Green, President of Delta Companies Inc., by the Secretary of the Senate.
