SECTION 7. EMERGENCY CLAUSE. It is found and determined by the General Assembly of the State of Arkansas that the safety and security of the Governor and other state constitutional officers is of paramount importance to the peace, health, and safety of individuals in the State of Arkansas; that recent threats to certain state constitutional officers and their families illustrate the need for enhanced protection of records pertaining to the security of certain state constitutional officers and their families in order to protect the public peace, health, and safety; that in order to ensure the continuity of state operations and preserve the secure nature of services provided to the Governor and other state constitutional officers, certain records pertaining to the safety and security of the Governor and other state constitutional officers must be confidential; that this act is immediately necessary because making public certain records concerning the safety and security of the Governor and other state constitutional officers would place the lives and security of the Governor and other state constitutional officers at a greater risk, thereby risking the peace, health, and safety afforded to Arkansans; that the public peace, health, and safety of the State of Arkansas is adversely impacted by preventing state agencies, boards, and commissions from formulating policies and making decisions critical to the operation of the state in an efficient manner; and that this act is immediately necessary to enable state government officials to effectively communicate during the deliberative process in order to make decisions that serve the best interests of the State of Arkansas in an efficient and secure manner. Therefore, an emergency is declared to exist, and this act being immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health, and safety shall become effective on:

- (1) The date of its approval by the Governor;
- (2) If the bill is neither approved nor vetoed by the Governor, the expiration of the period of time during which the Governor may veto the bill; or
- (3) If the bill is vetoed by the Governor and the veto is overridden, the date the last house overrides the veto.
