HOUSE RESOLUTION

TO PROCLAIM APRIL 24, 2025, AS TEACH CHILDREN TO SAVE
DAY IN ARKANSAS.

Subtitle

TO PROCLAIM APRIL 24, 2025, AS TEACH
CHILDREN TO SAVE DAY IN ARKANSAS.

WHEREAS, financial literacy is a fundamental life skill that empowers individuals to make informed and responsible financial decisions, ensuring a stable and secure future for themselves and their families; and

WHEREAS, Teach Children to Save Day, observed on April 24, 2025, is a nationwide initiative that encourages parents, teachers, and caregivers to educate young students on the importance of saving money and making smart financial choices; and

WHEREAS, research has shown that early financial education helps children develop critical skills such as budgeting, goal-setting, self-discipline, and delayed gratification, which are essential for long-term financial success; and

WHEREAS, many adults struggle with managing their finances due to a lack of early education on the topic, making it imperative that we instill strong financial habits in our children from an early age to foster a generation of financially responsible and independent citizens; and

WHEREAS, through collaboration with local businesses, schools, and banks, we make an essential investment in the state's economy by strengthening financial literacy and ensuring our students are prepared for a future of financial independence and security; and

WHEREAS, Arkansas bank representatives serve on the Arkansas Financial Education Commission, which is charged with responding to our state's need for access to free educational resources that will help Arkansans in all geographic areas and from all socioeconomic backgrounds achieve financial well-being,

NOW THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE NINETY-FIFTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ARKANSAS:

THAT the House of Representatives proclaim April 24, 2025, as Teach Children to Save Day in Arkansas to encourage all citizens to support financial education efforts that equip Arkansas children with the knowledge and skills to become responsible stewards of their financial futures.
